looks into the future

THE KNIGHT'S PRAYER

Dear Mother Mary, Queen of your Knightly sons and daughters
Once again I dedicate myself to you
Protect your Knights and Ladies of St. Mary's,
Give faith to my soul and purify my body,
Help me always to direct my course toward your divine son, Jesus Christ.
I am sorry for ever having offended Him because he is all good and deserving of all my love.
With your help, I promise never to offend Him again. Amen.
"All for Jesus through Mary"

dedication

Behind every school activity, there is some unseen person who provides an incentive for others. Usually he receives little credit or praise for his accomplishments. So it has been with Father Ernest.
The long hours spent on the annual and the tiring jobs for the Dad's Club are only a few of his many accomplishments.
As principal this year, he remains as the unseen leader of all Saint Mary's activities.
To you, Father Ernest, we dedicate this annual.

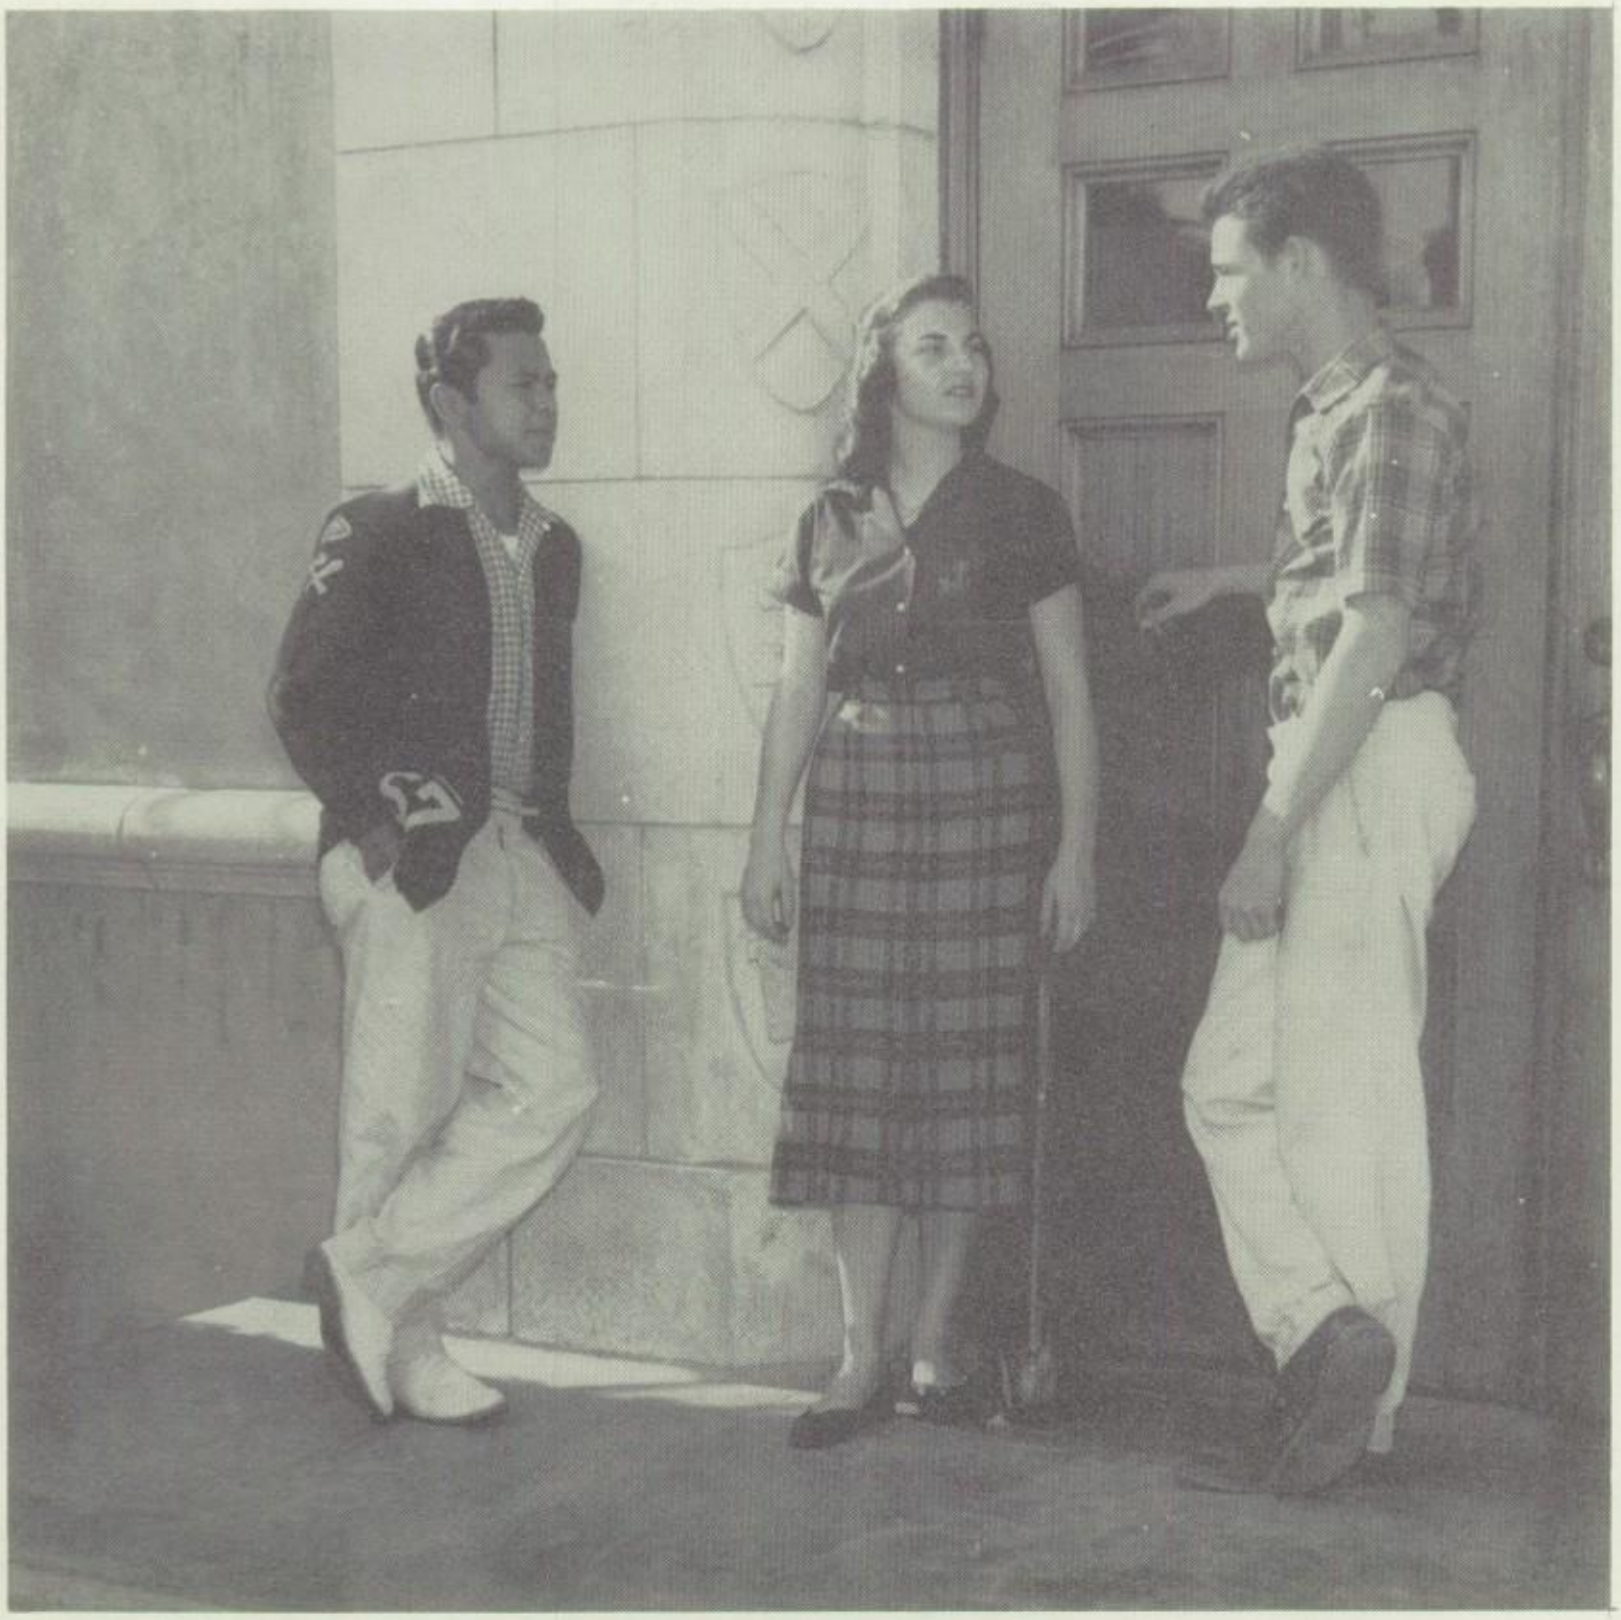
seniors



Vice-President Henry Medrano, Secretary Carole Wolf, and President Mike Voita discuss the forthcoming senior event. Absent is Rosalie Bedway, treasurer.

The class of '57 followed the tradition of all senior classes as being the busiest group of students on campus. Clubs and teams, under their direction, prospered as never before. Besides boosting all school activities, they were ever mindful of graduation and the future. It will long be remembered that this class sponsored the most magnificent prom ever presented in the S.M. gym. The annual staff wishes the graduates much success and happiness in their conquests of new vistas.

SAINT MARY'S HIGH SCHOOL
230 EAST POLK STREET
PHOENIX, ARIZONA

Dear Seniors:

Now you have attained the immediate goal of your high school career. During the past four years, your education has been a cooperative effort in which you, the students, were required to play an active role. At times your cooperation was whole-hearted; at other times, a bit hesitant. For all that cooperation, I sincerely thank you.

Graduation is a giant step forward and all members of the faculty heartily congratulate you on taking this step.

From now on, others will aid you to complete your spiritual, mental, social and physical training that you might attain an integrated Catholic personality. Most important of all on your part will be that cooperative effort — your active role in the fields of prudent study and vital Catholic living.

God bless you

Fr. Ernest C. Wilson, O.S.M.
Principal

Sitting: Dick Vales, secretary, and Sue Eldridge, president. Standing: Conrad Murphy, vice-president, and Bill Schub, treasurer. Not planning the Prom, are you?

The junior class has exerted much ambition in the line of activities and leadership. Meeting the test of unity and organization within the class, they copped the supreme prize in the float contest and placed second in the competitive assemblies. They showed good potentiality in filling the positions vacated by their predecessors. Good luck, Juniors!

Amusing themselves after a class meeting are Robert Carbajal, treasurer; Sherry Hengesbaugh, secretary; Mike Barnes, president; and Judy Feight, vice-president.

The class of '59 has proved themselves as a class and as individuals. They have successfully accomplished their second step in high school life. As a class, they have proved their willingness to work together, by winning second place with their float and going on to win first place in the Talent Assembly Competition. The sophomore class is aware of its influence and also the responsibility that they have to continue in the best tradition of St. Mary's.

Sprinting from school to high school was a big jump for the class of '60. Adjusting to new curriculums, meeting new friends, discovering the excitement of S.M. tradition, and standing up under the taunts of the upperclassmen may have seemed difficult, but our freshmen came through with few scars. The big years lie ahead, and they will most likely make them worthwhile.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The main link between students and faculty is the Student Council. A vigorous organization, the elected group, among other things, arranges assemblies, presents the mid-year formal dance, and sponsors school picnics. Colorful spring elections for new officials are only a small indication of the initiative of our S.M. Student Council.

Left to right
1st row — Larry Carrigan, Howard Davis, Manuel Lugo, Louise Sampson, Beth O'Brien, Mary Jo Stepan.
2nd row — Libby Diaz, Carol Rich, Virginia McGovern, Sue Eldridge, Rosie Bedway, Carole Wolf, Colleen Stanley, Sherry Hengesbough, Judy Feight, Judy Pellegrini.

At the annual Student Council Convention held in Winslow, the S.M. officers mix business with pleasure on the ice and in the snow.

STUDENT SENATE

The Student Senate at S.M. is an honor club in which members are chosen by the student body with the approval of the faculty. To attain membership, the qualifications are to maintain a high scholastic average, to develop and possess qualities of leadership and good feelings.

Too bad you spotted him jaywalking, huh, Jess?

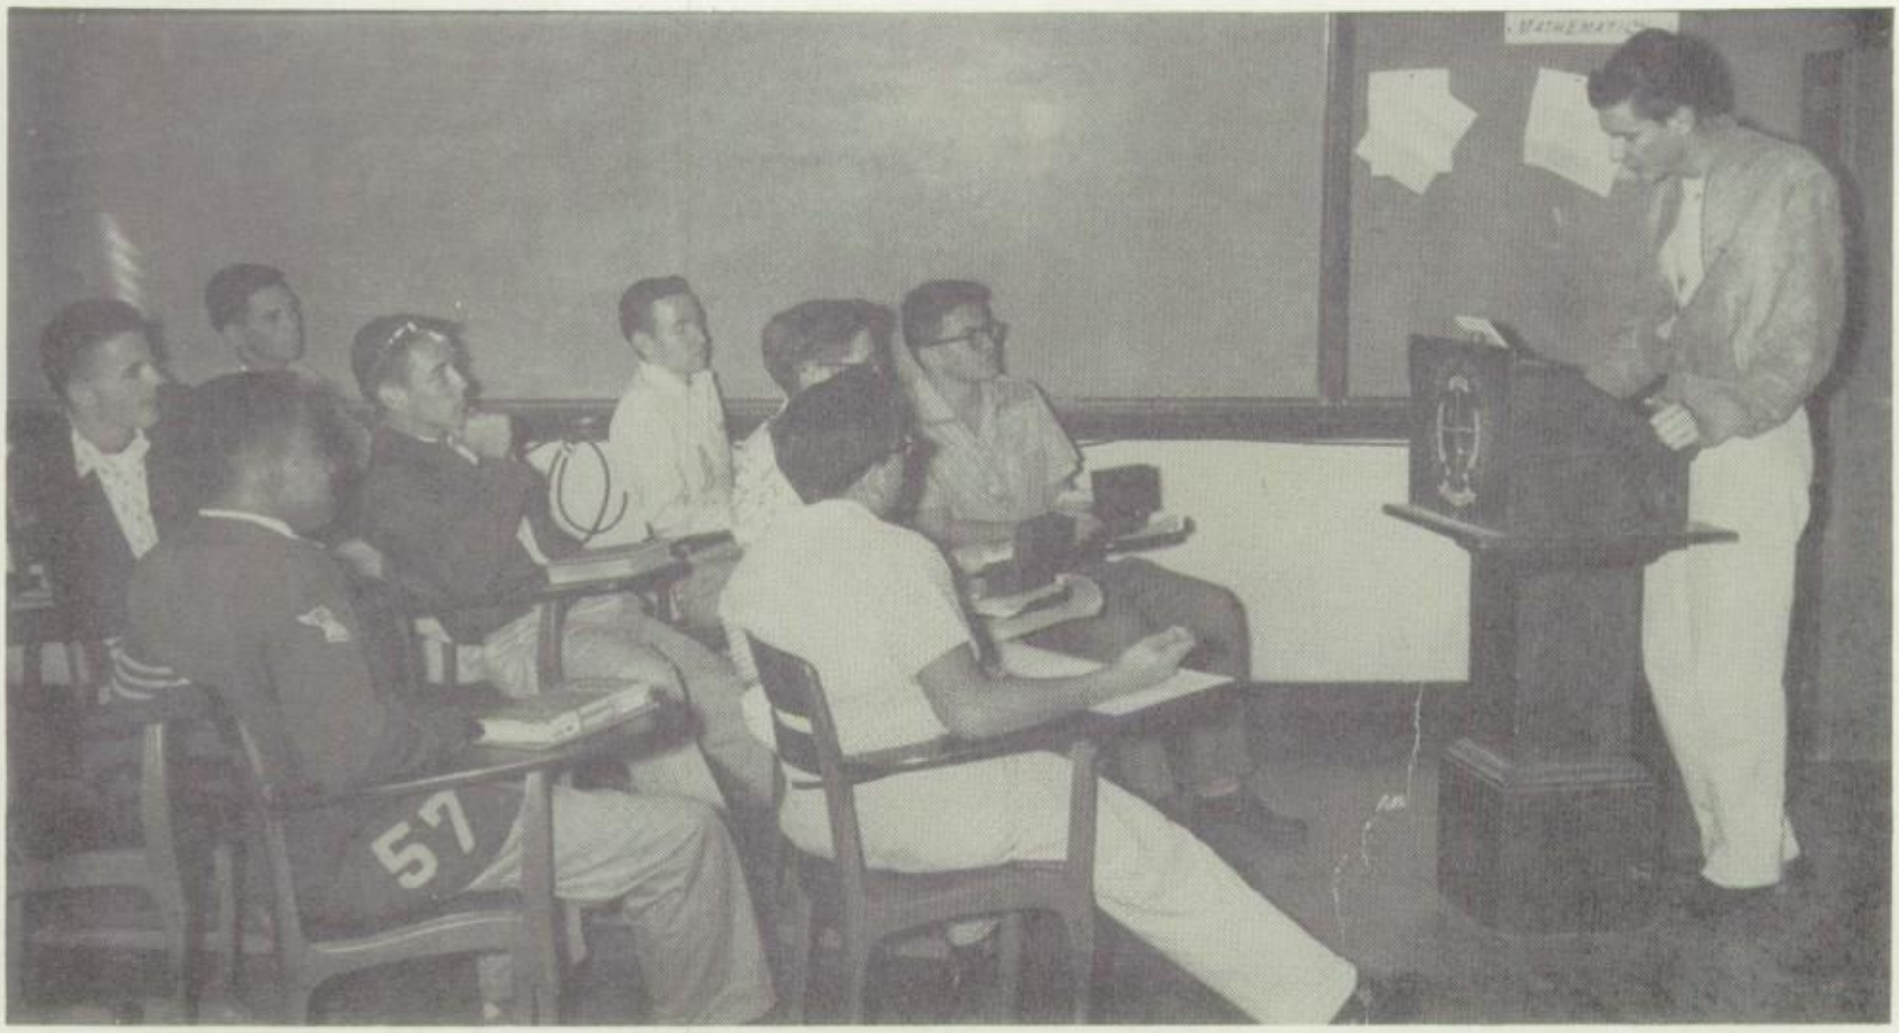
Frank Servin reminds an underclassman of the Boys' High traffic rules.

KNIGHTS OF S. M.

Left to right: Conrad Murphy, Manuel Lugo, Fr. Barnabas, O.F.M. (Moderator), Mike Tiffany, and Ray Hernandez.

Imposing upon themselves the obligation to receive Holy Communion and to say the rosary daily, the Knights of S.M. also have a special devotion to Our Lady. An honorable and soul-satisfying devotion — that is what these boys have chosen voluntarily. In daily life they give good example to other students, remembering the words of Our Immaculate Mother, that prayers and sacrifice are necessary for salvation.

DEBATE



Under the guidance of Fr. Barnabas, O.F.M., St. Mary's debators compiled a respectable 7-3 record during the first semester. The teams also competed in meets at Los Angeles, Tucson, and Tempe. Public speaking members include Ken Prebil, Howard Davis, George Young, and Dick Woods. Debators, attentive to Charlie Bayer, are Jim Gannon, Tony Billings, Bill Ven Rooy, and Pat Shreve.

DRAMA CLUB

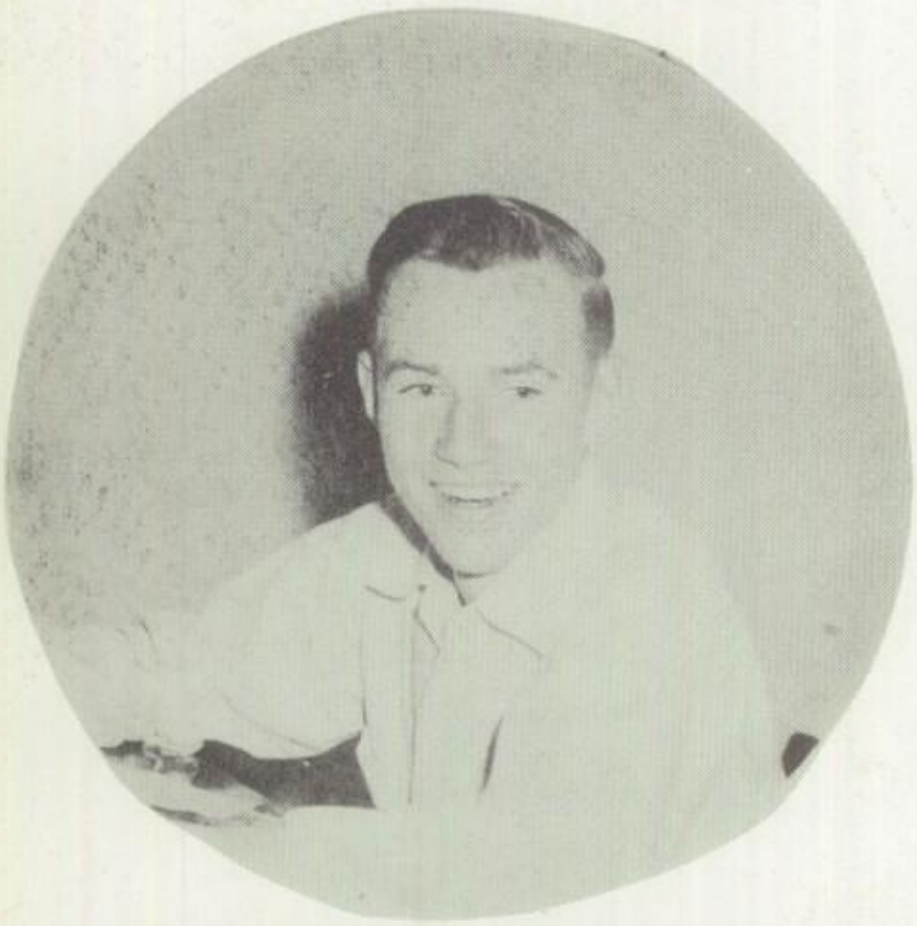
EL CABALLERO

After many hours of hard work, El Caballero editor Barbara Defer gave the students a publication that readily recognizes her ability, patience, and leadership. We are sure, Barbara, that this annual will rate as one of the best.



Working right along with the editor and smoothing out the wrinkles is the assistant editor, Jim Gannon, whose cooperation with the editor and encouragement to the entire staff is appreciated.

The '57 El Caballero reflects a unique approach in the yearbook layout at St. Mary's. The resulting innovation meant rush and hard work but the annual staff agrees it was worth their while and they proudly present: EL CABALLERO 1957.

Copyists Roberta Eccleston and Allana Wilson spend much of the time writing captions for the numerous pictures.

Dick Woods, Glynnie Montgomery and Mike Voita construct the sports layout.

Typists Juanita Griego and Linda Houle busy themselves with the all-important chore of transcribing writeups.

Subscriptionists: Sitting are Bill Schub, Dottie Powers, Virginia Rice, Mary Claire Sampson, and Pat Scott. Standing are Dick Turner, Vera Glose, Rosie Bedway, Beth O'Brien, Kay Grimes, and Ed LeFevre.

Alexandra Bakowycz and Carole Campbell have labored over the modern artwork in this year's El Caballero.

In making up any annual, there are a thousand and one odd jobs that require many varied skills. Most of these tiring jobs were done by those on the staff who have no official title or special duty. They all played an important part in composing your El Caballero.

Bob Gagnier, Tom Wagner, Mike Carrigan, Larry Carrigan, Willena Dodt, Helene Carr, Kathy Butler.

Lettergirls

Lettermen

Pom Pon

Eight of the most precise coeds on campus are our colorful pom-pon girls. During the year they perfected a number of tricky dances through unity and hard practice. Many have claimed them as "best in the city," and certainly, S.M. athletes and fans have no objections!

Cheerleaders

Cheerleaders Diane Stinespring, Rosie Fasula, Connie Bushman, John Cook, Pat Scott, Sharla Fogli, and Camille Varella show a favorite chant formation.

Cheering the Knights to victory during the football and basketball seasons has been fostered by our spirited squad. The cheerleaders have transformed yelling crowds into organized groups of rooters which have boosted the morale of our athletes.

Mickey Johnson, head majorette, has delighted many audiences by her excellent twirling.

Majorettes

S.M. twirlers have glamorized football halftimes by their well-mastered skills. This select group leads the Band in all parades and is attractive in marching ability, too.

Amelia Hudson, Carol Jean Rich, Ann Holmes, Mascot Vonda Hammond, Joanne Hintze, and Mary Jo Stepan, our high-stepping twirlers, in one of their practice sessions.

Glee Club

Their eight part harmony has entertained television and civic group audiences throughout the Valley, as well as providing additional splendor to Student Body Masses. They also favorably represent S.M. in numerous elementary school tours.

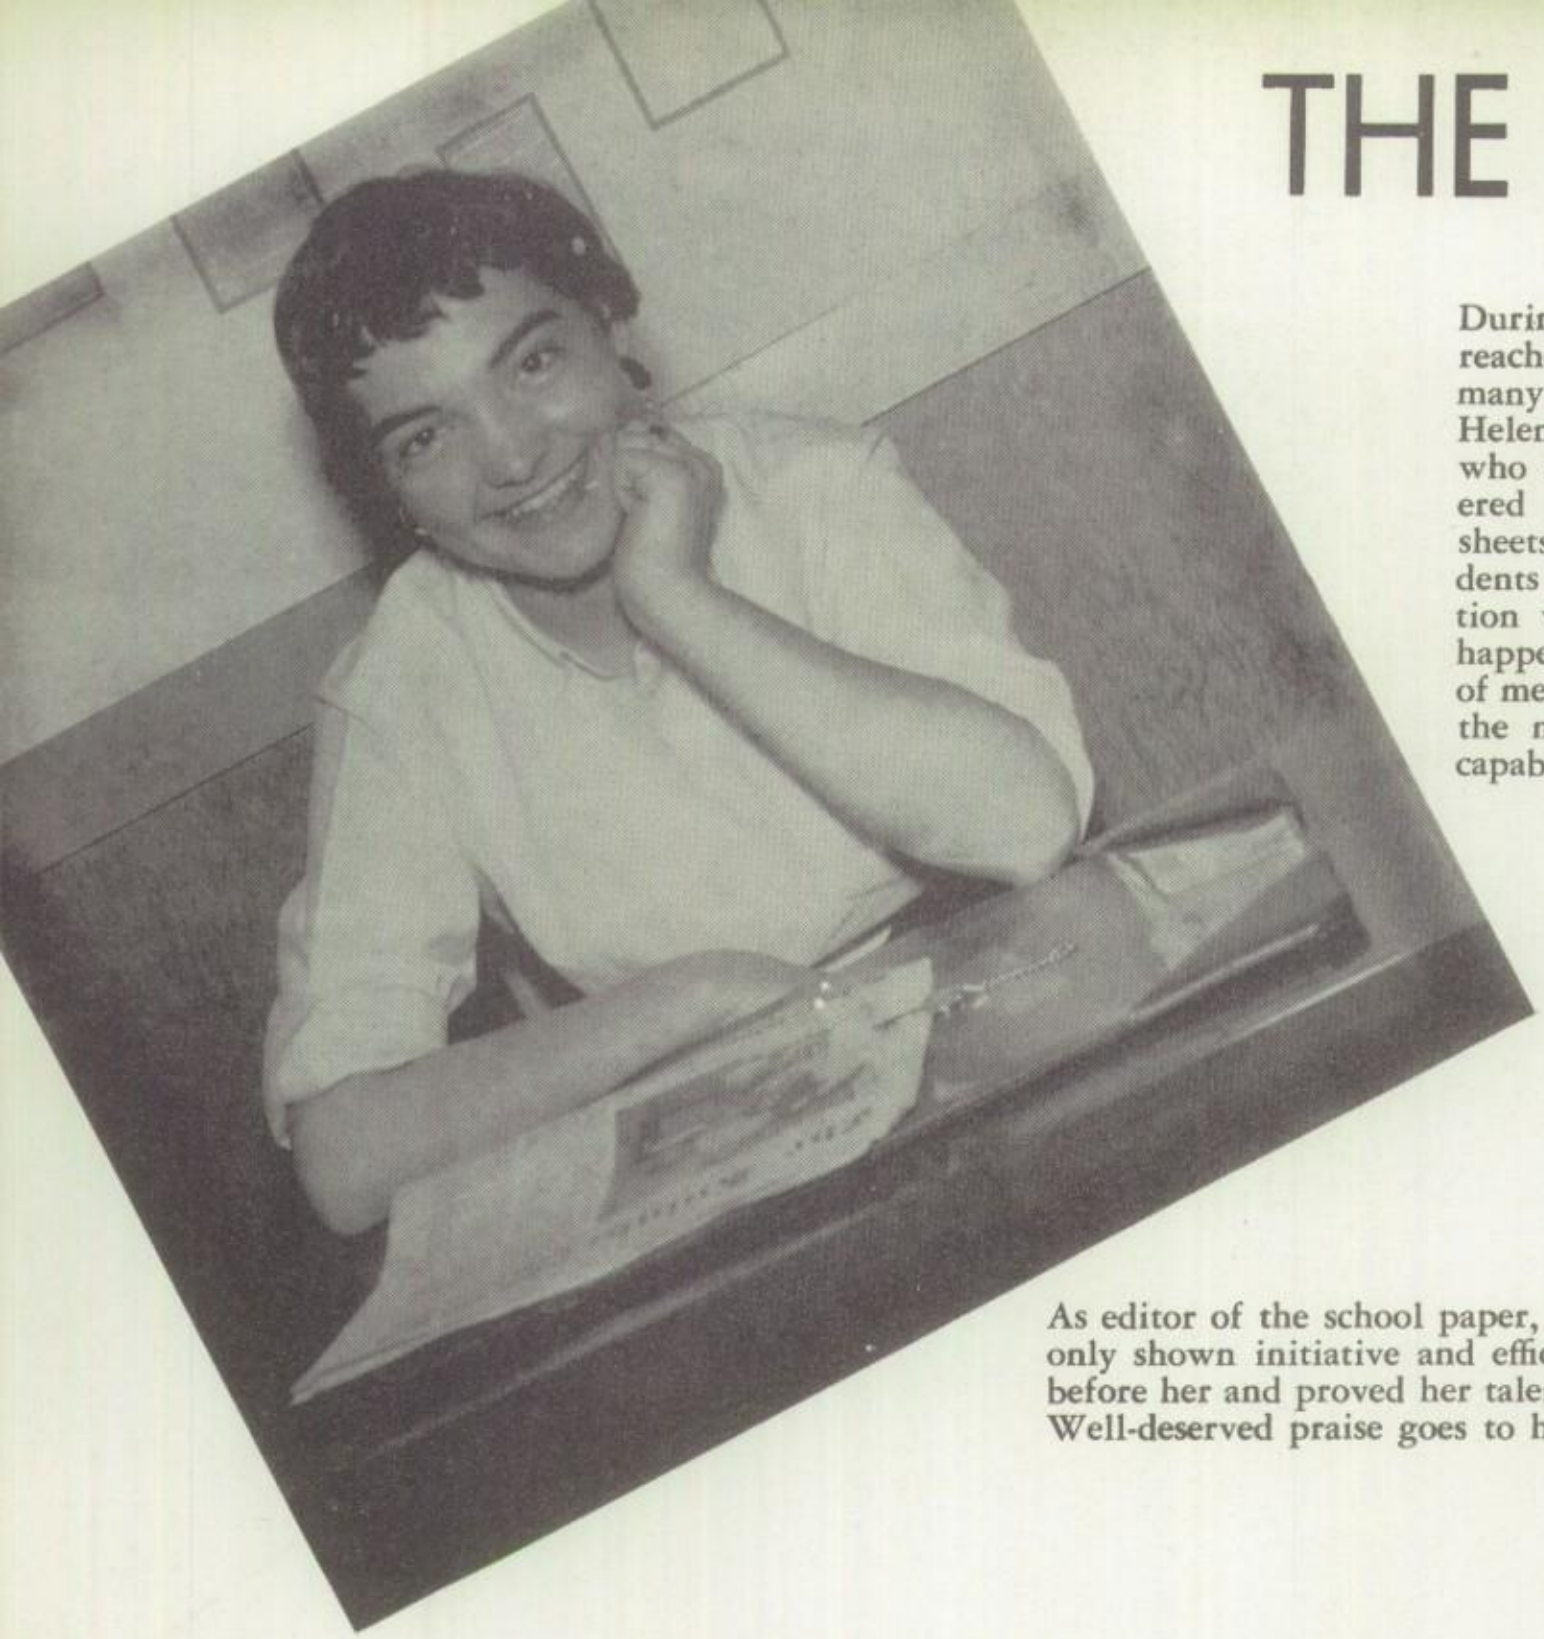
THE KNIGHT



During the past school year the Knight reached the students of St. Mary's after many tedious hours on the part of Helene Carr and her hardworking staff who solicited ads, interviewed, gathered school news, toiled over copy sheets in order to present to the students a popular, worthwhile publication with the latest news of school happenings. The never-ending worry of meeting a deadline was only one of the many ordeals overcome by this capable group.

As editor of the school paper, The Knight, Helene Carr has not only shown initiative and efficiency, but she has faced the task before her and proved her talents to edit such an excellent paper. Well-deserved praise goes to her and her competent staff.

Looking over their stories after publication in the Knight are Jack Miller, Virginia Rice, Judy Bielecki, Diane Bertoia, Netta Nelson, and Jeanine Wilson.

The editing staff reviews the fruits of their labor. Among them, we have Mike Kuhl and Dave Morgan, sports editors; Peter Loskouski, co-editor; Helene Carr, editor; Dick Turner, publicity manager; Alice Quezada, feature editor; and Kathy Toschik, circulation manager.

Assisting the editor in compiling and assembling the news are reporters Ellen Reed, Colleen Stanley, Carol Balducci, Joan Maraschiello, and Bill Boland.

Band

Fighting spirit during athletic contests has been greatly promoted by the S.M Marching Band. This musical group has performed during halftimes, introduced assemblies, and been available for countless other social events.

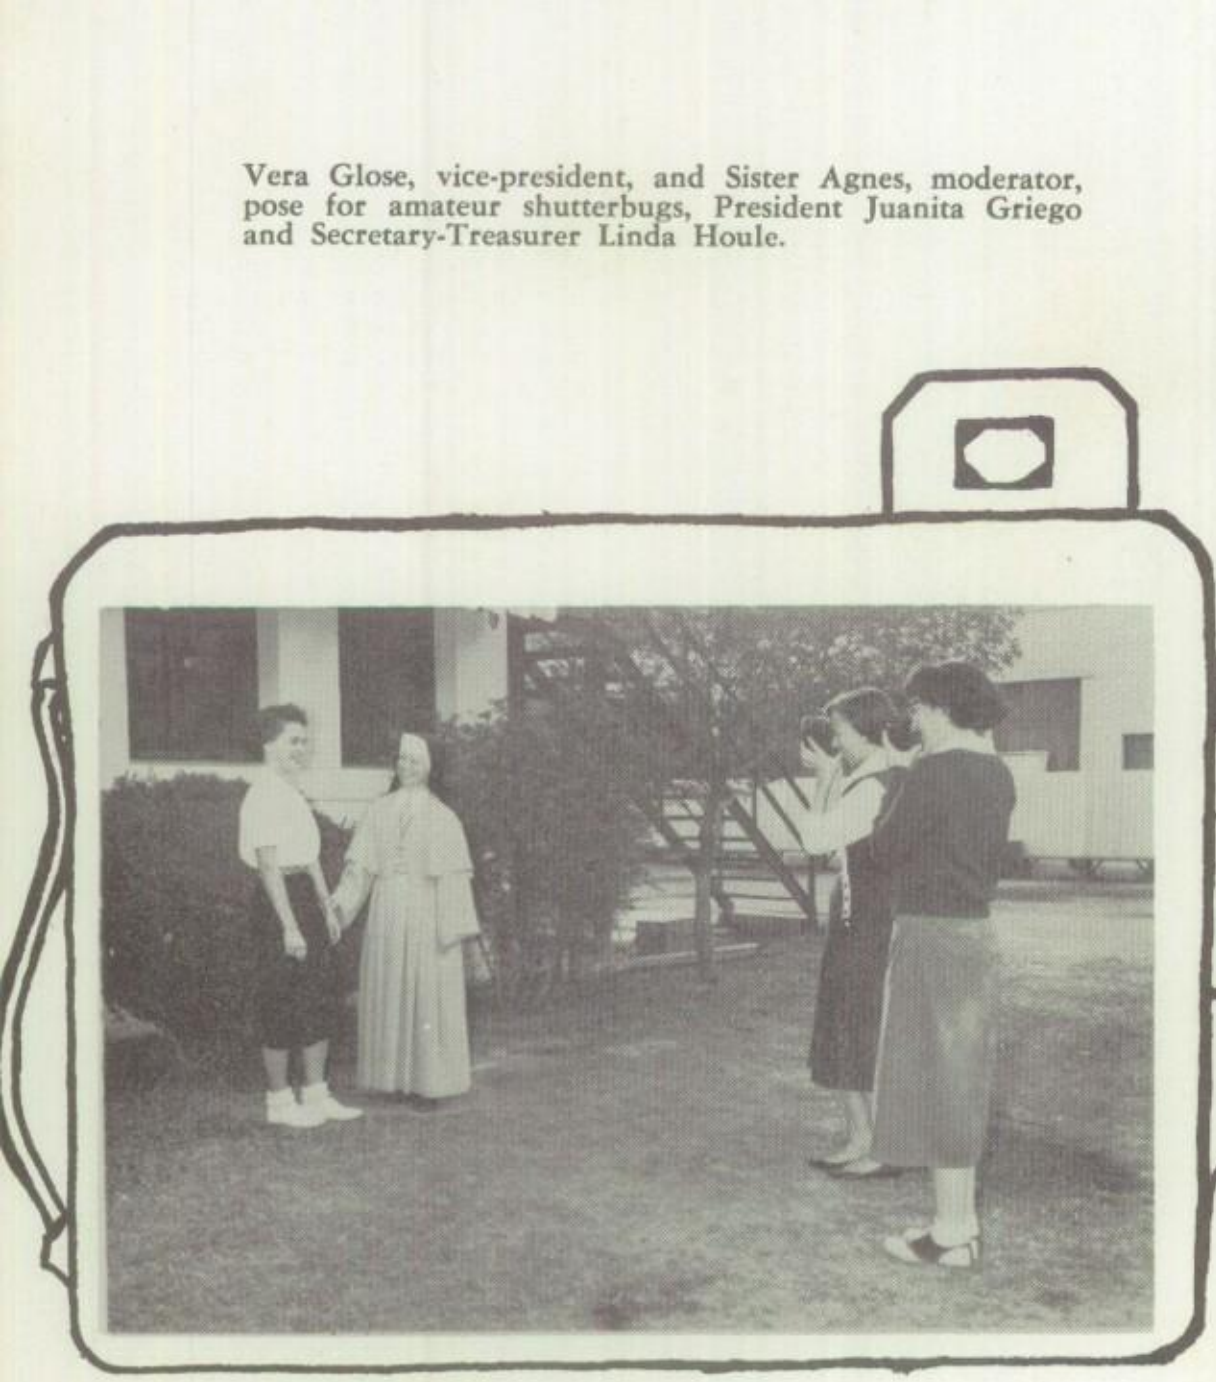
J. R. C.

J.R.C. officers: Lala Curé, secretary, Pat Ruddell, president; and Margie Doskocil, vice-president.

One of the most active clubs on campus, it is connected with the famed international organization. A few of their many projects were decorating windows for the Little Sisters of the Poor, constructing hogan kits and scrap books for the hospitals, sewing pajamas for the County Hospital, and raising money by a Valentine raffle and bake sale. The group is similarly proud of its representative, Mary Jo Stepan, at the regional and national conventions.

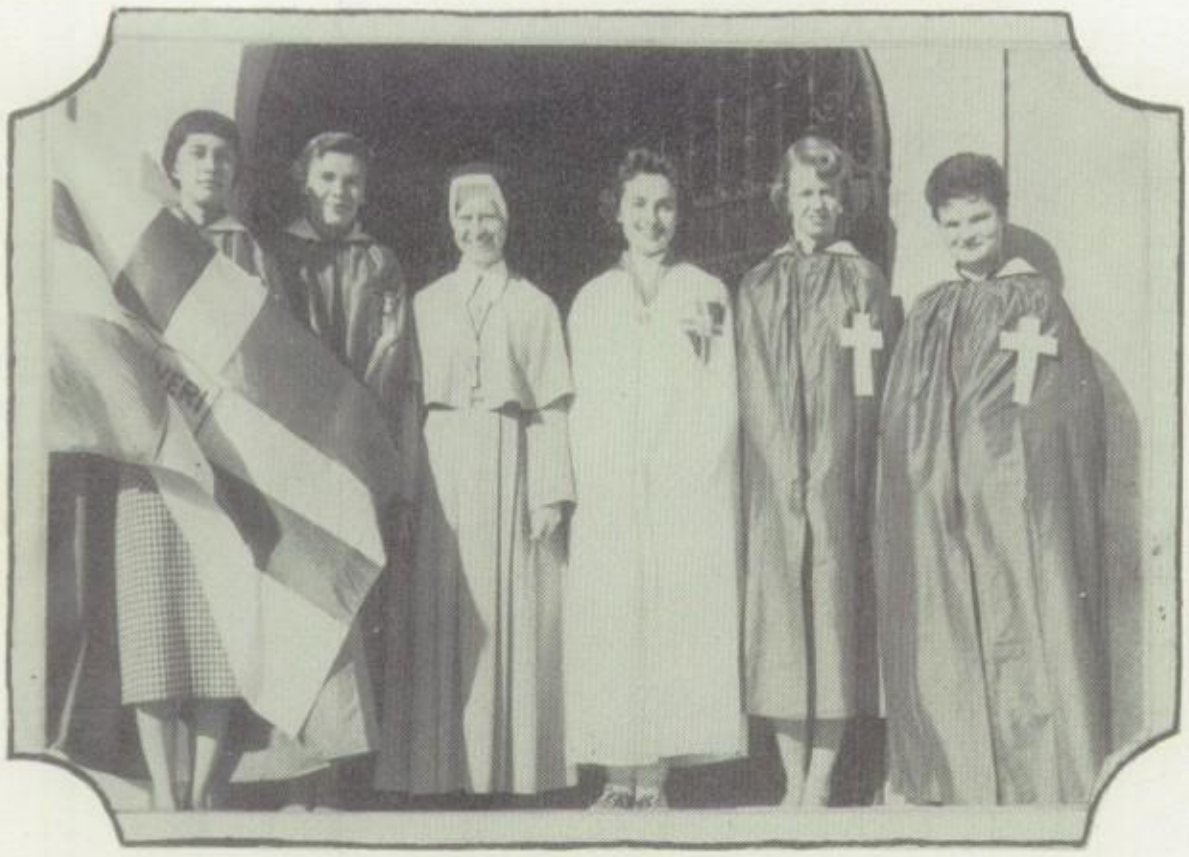
CAMERA CLUB

Vera Glose, vice-president, and Sister Agnes, moderator, pose for amateur shutterbugs, President Juanita Griego and Secretary-Treasurer Linda Houle.



Roberta Eccleston is demonstrated a printing phase by Barbara Defer in the club darkroom.

C. S. M. C.



Toni Arvizu, vice-president; Pat Ruddell, treasurer; Sister Agnes, moderator; Judy Smith, president; Kay Grimes, secretary; and Pat Sanford, spiritual treasurer are garbed for the annual C.S.M.C. inductions.

The Catholic Students' Mission Crusade has been organized to aid the missions at home and abroad by study, prayer, and sacrifice.

Moderator and officers have guided the entire club in their current projects. Highlights of the year include the winter initiations, teaching catechism on Sundays, and assisting a specific mission field each month.

S. D. S.

Almost every S.M. coed belongs to this club. The selling of worthwhile books during Catholic Book Month; sponsoring of a Marian art contest; the presenting of an annual fashion show; and the posting of the Legion of Decency ratings have been continued, with this year's group adding a First Saturday continuous rosary.

QUEEN TONI

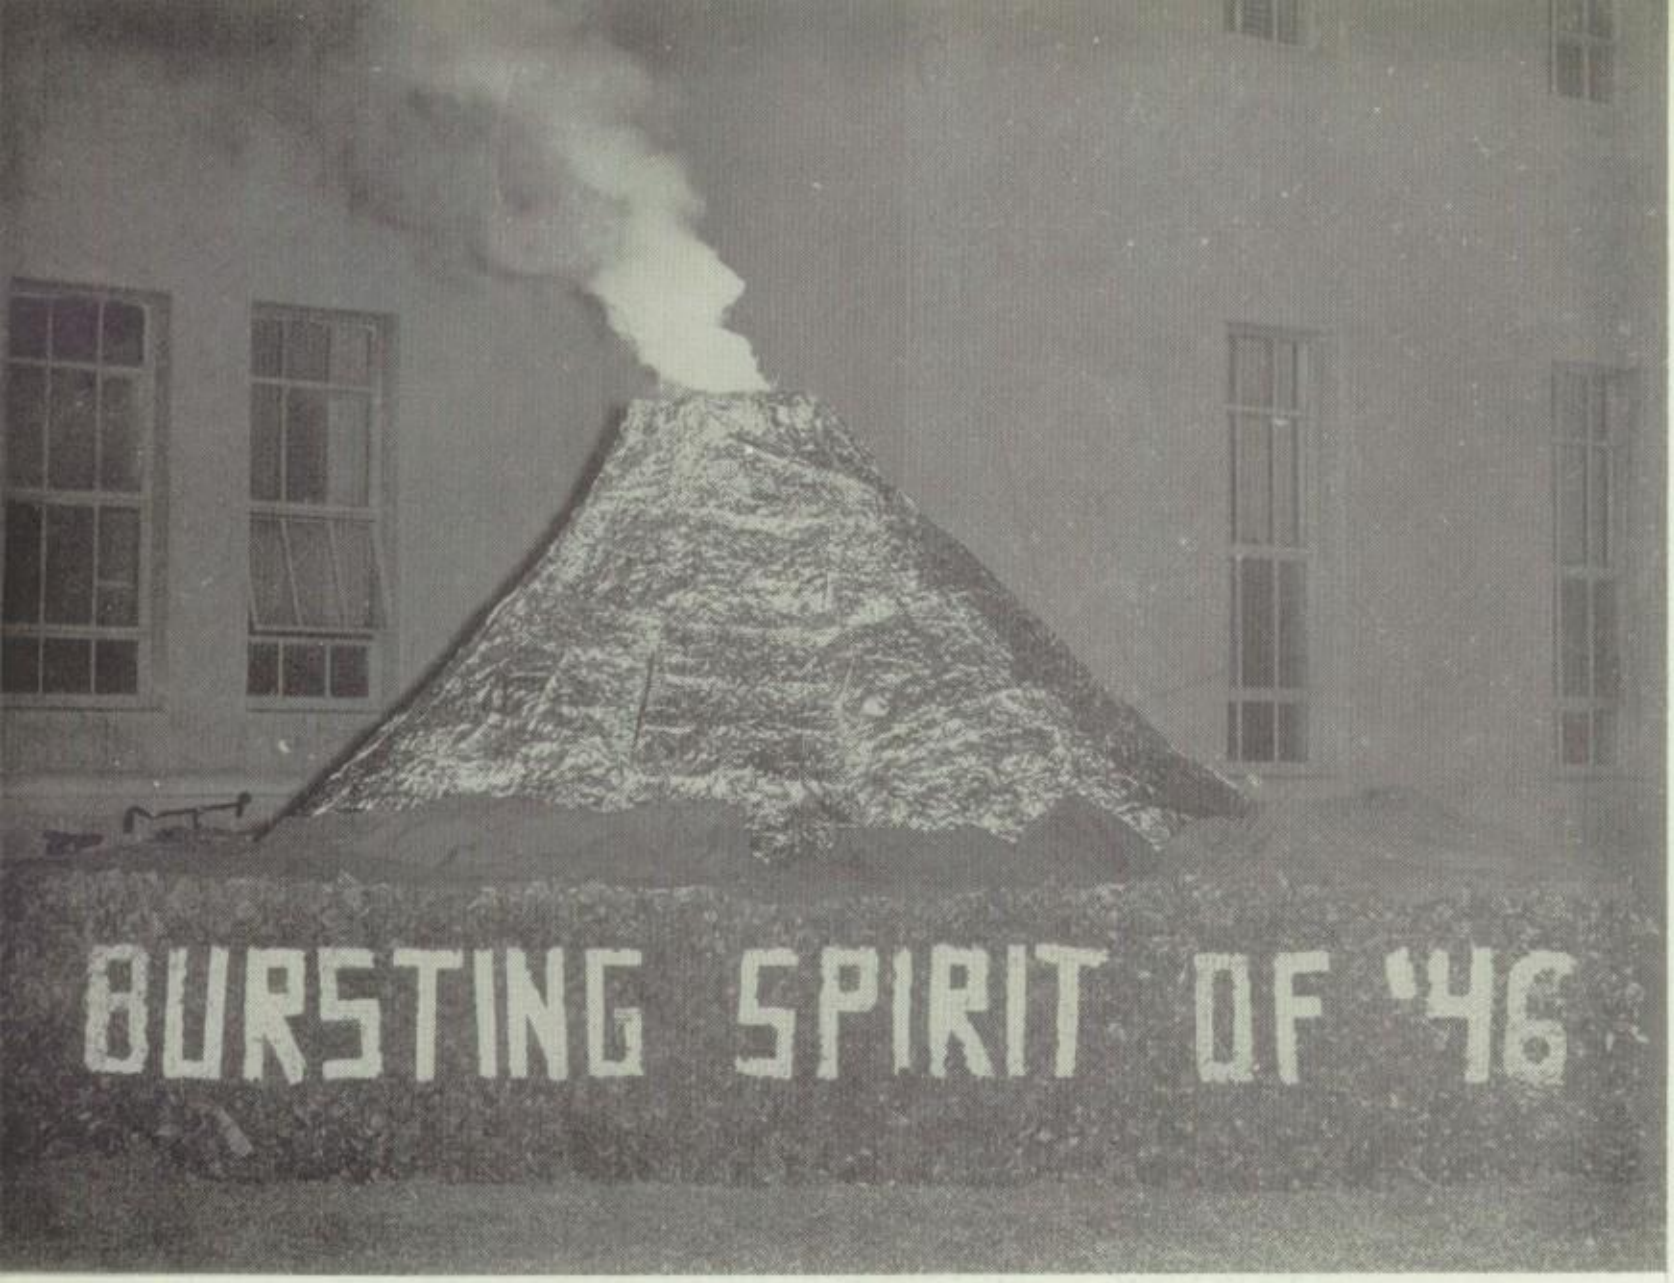
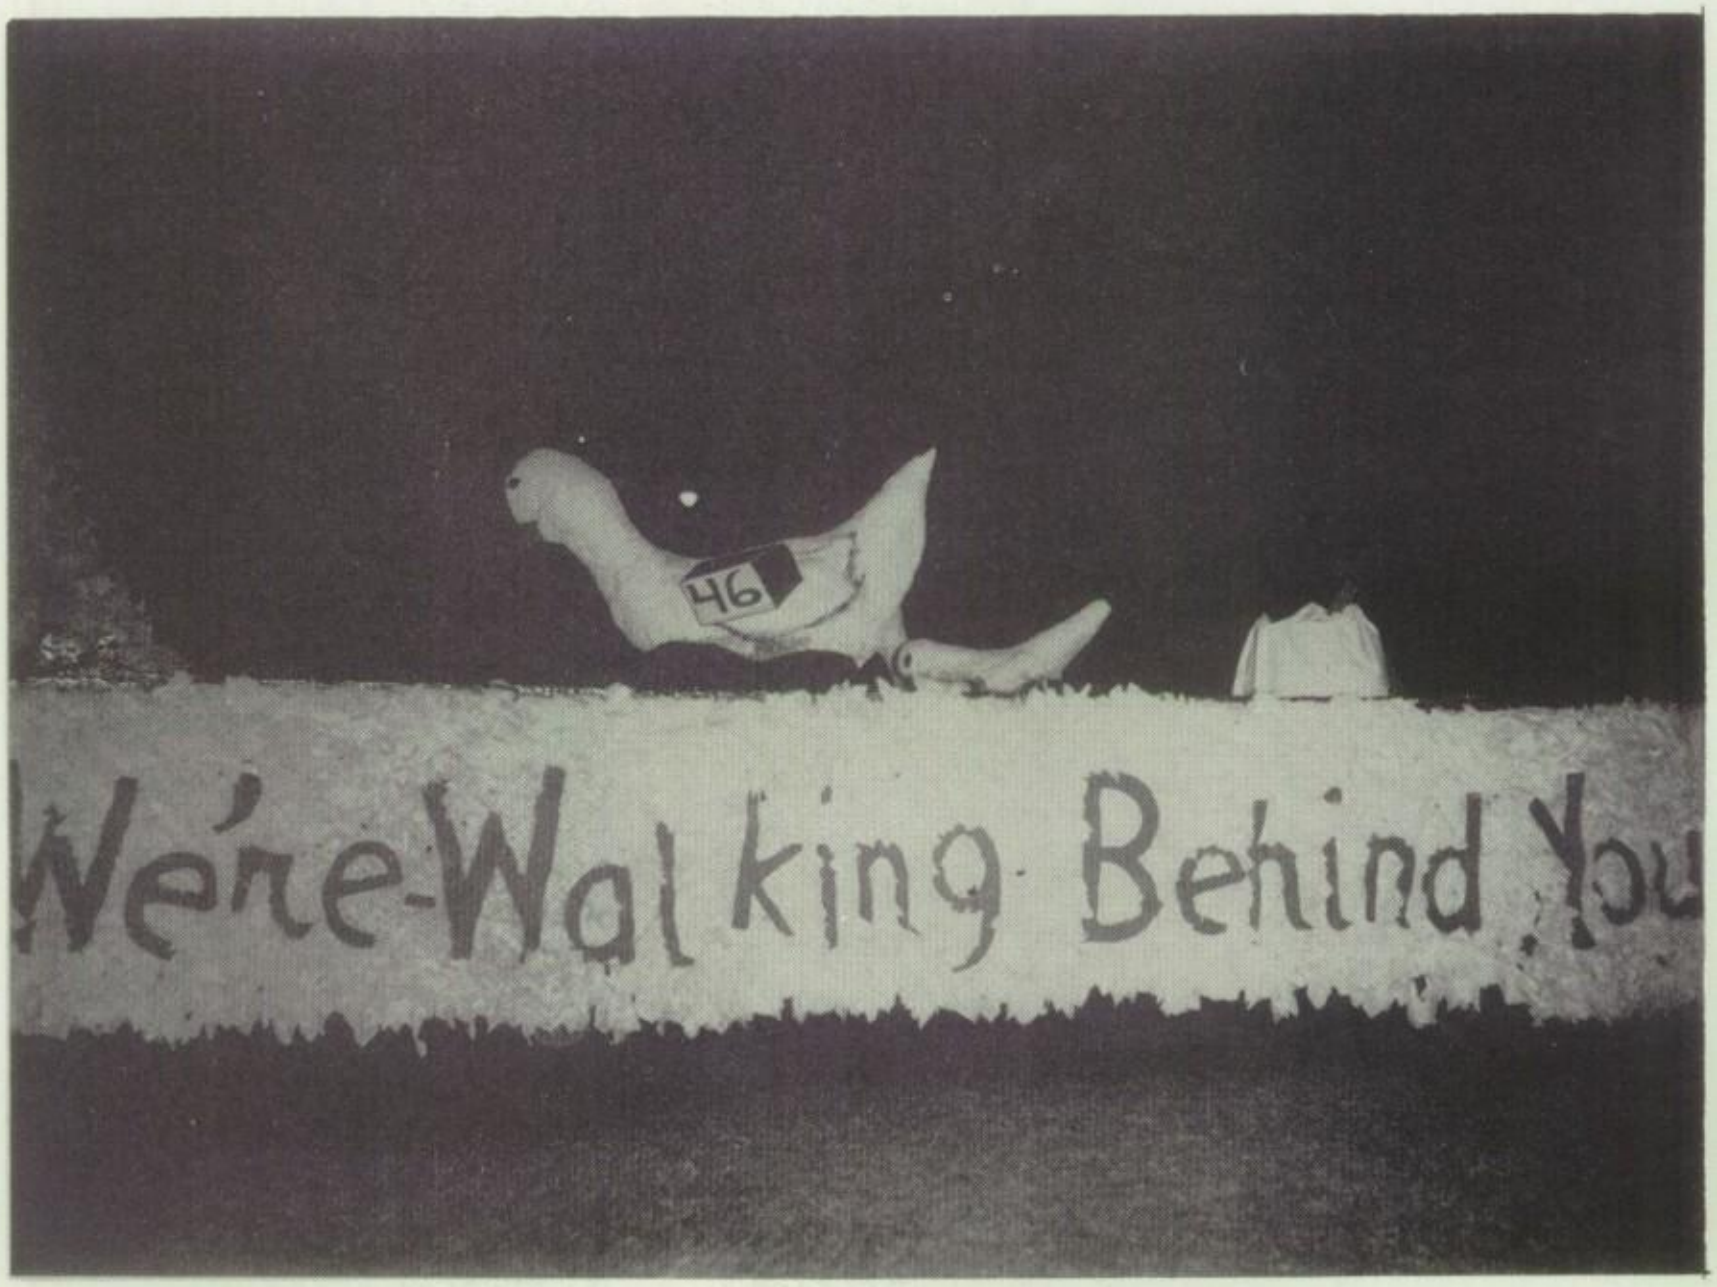
Mid-football season was highlighted by Homecoming festivities. Reigning over the events was Queen Toni Arvizu, who was selected by the entire student body on the basis of being an all-around Saint Mary's girl. Toni and her four attendants, escorted by senior boys, added much glamour and grace to the atmosphere.

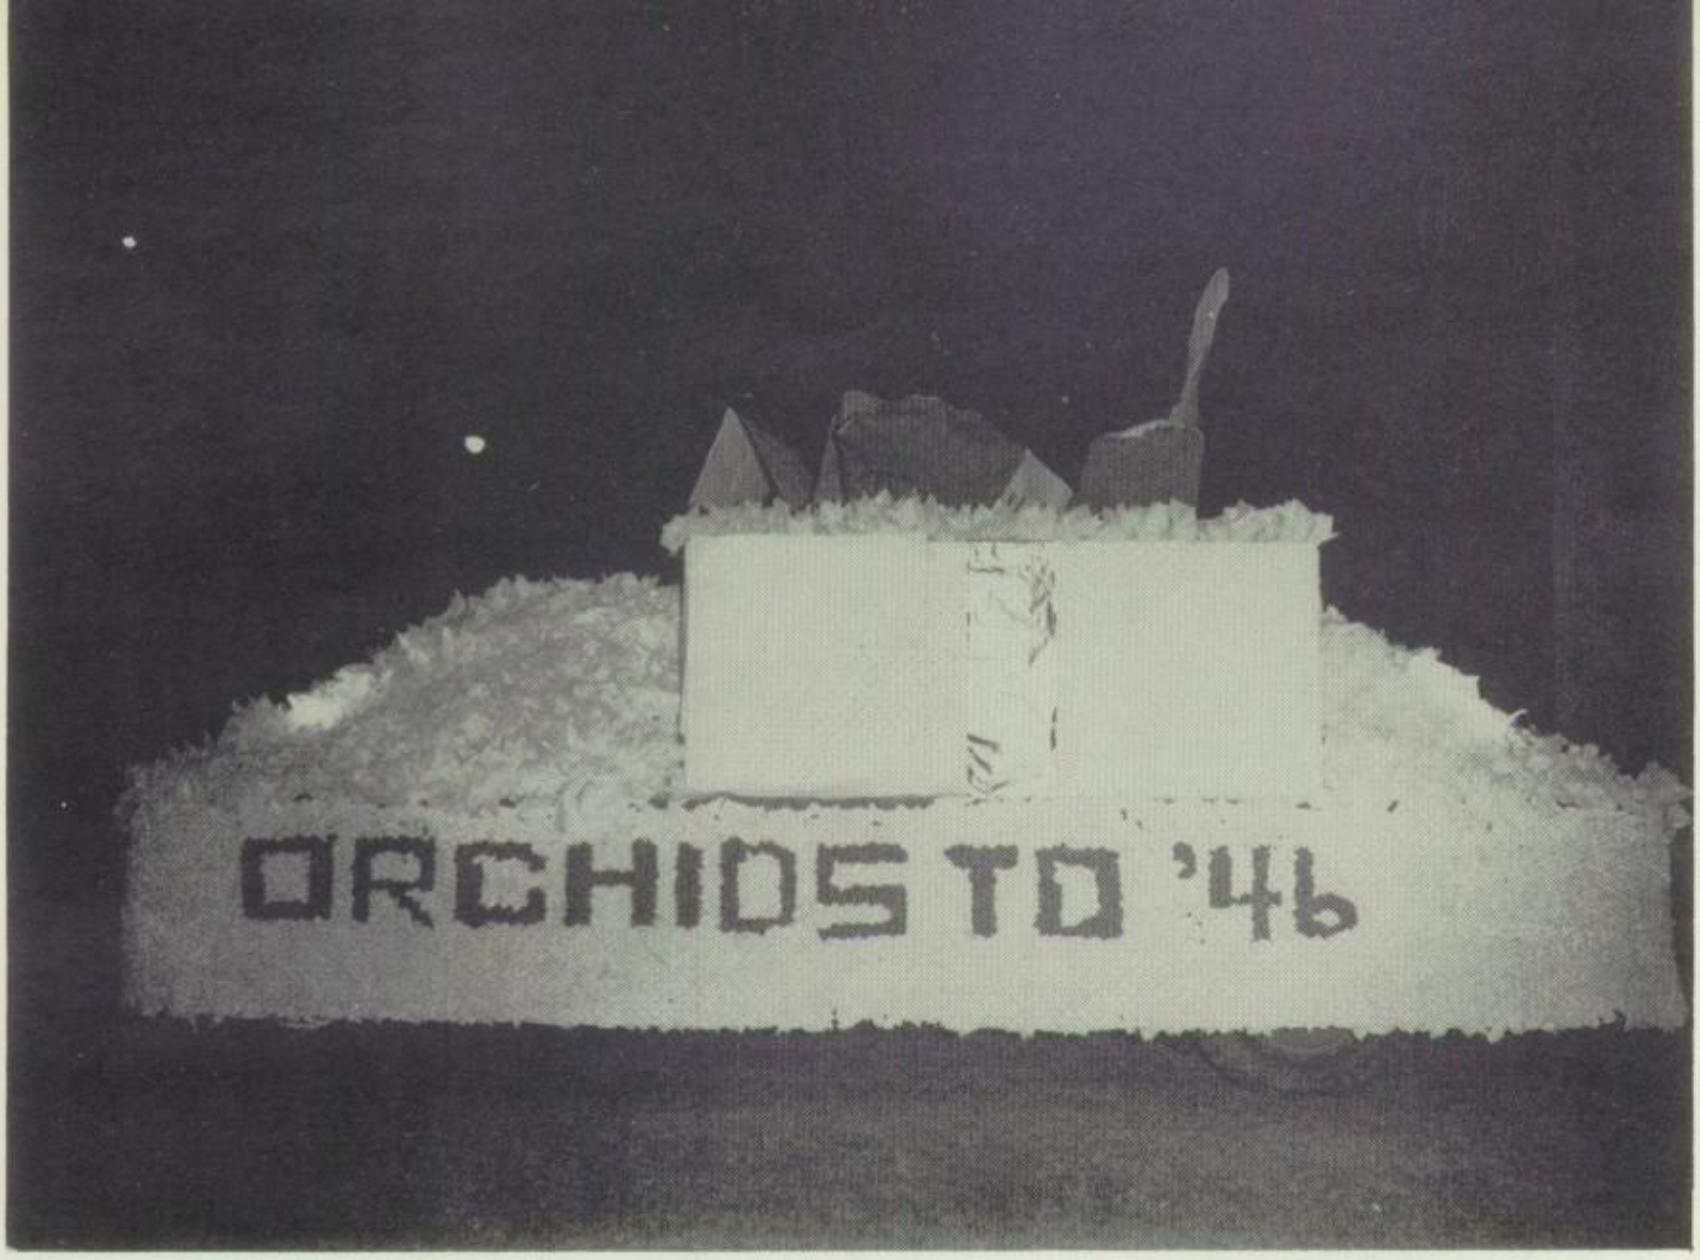
Augmenting the pageantry each class contributed a float honoring the Class of 1946. A special ceremony included coronation of the queen, parade of the floats, school songs and cheers, and special speeches by the alumni.



Seniors . . . BURSTING SPIRIT OF '46 . . . 3rd place

Juniors . . . WE'RE WALKING BEHIND YOU . . . 1st place



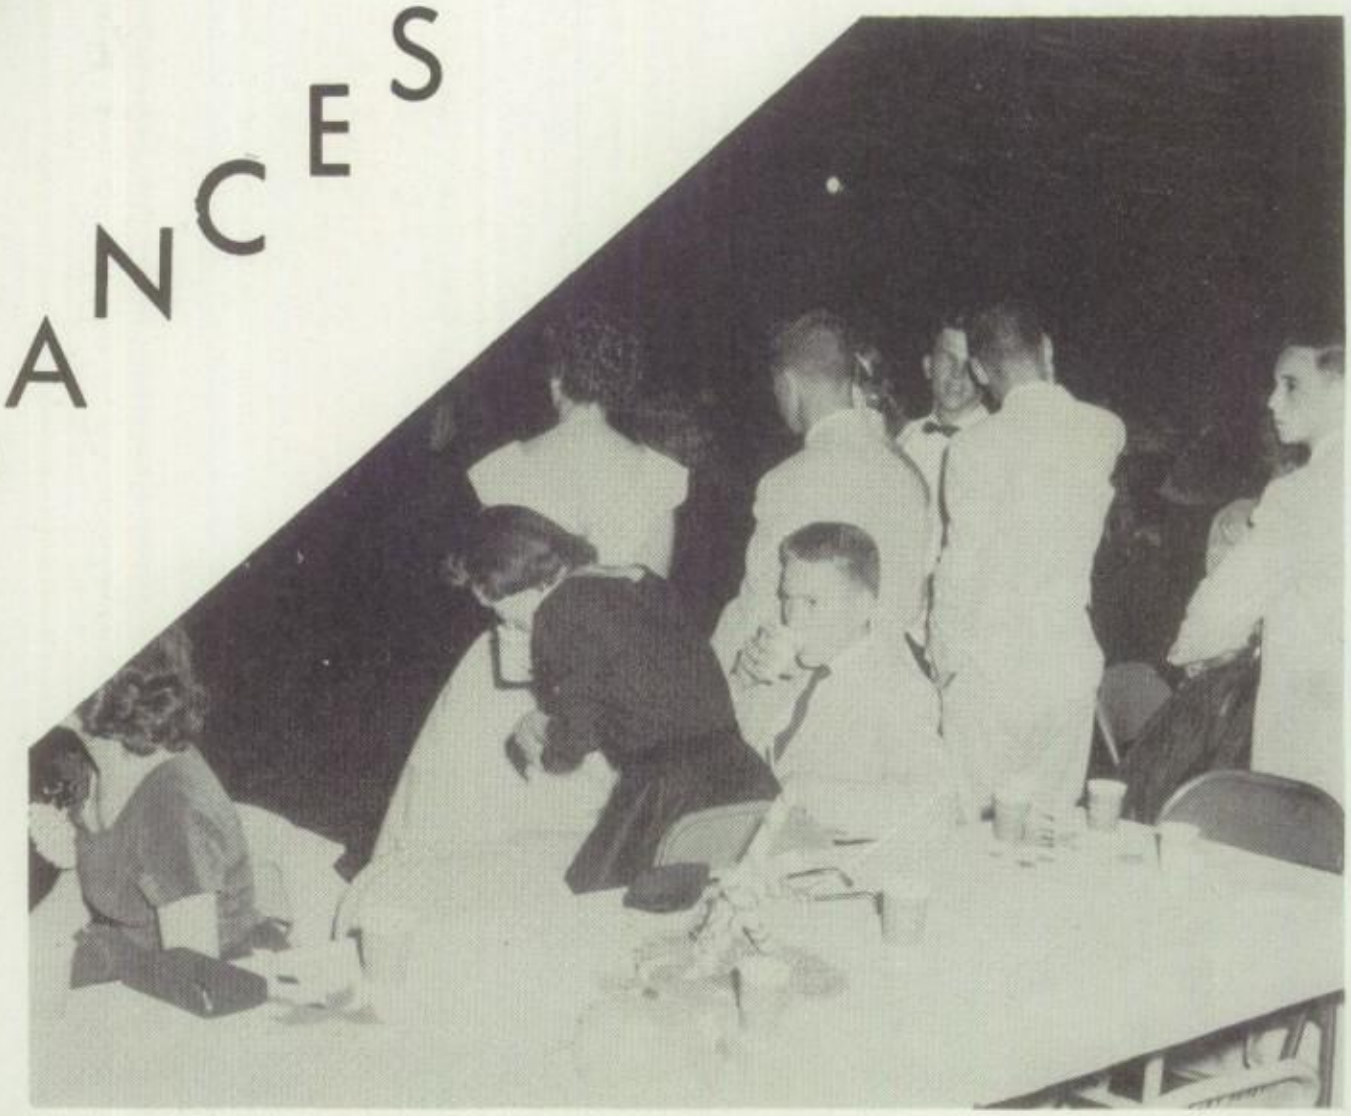


Sophomores . . . ORCHIDS TO '46 . . . 2nd place

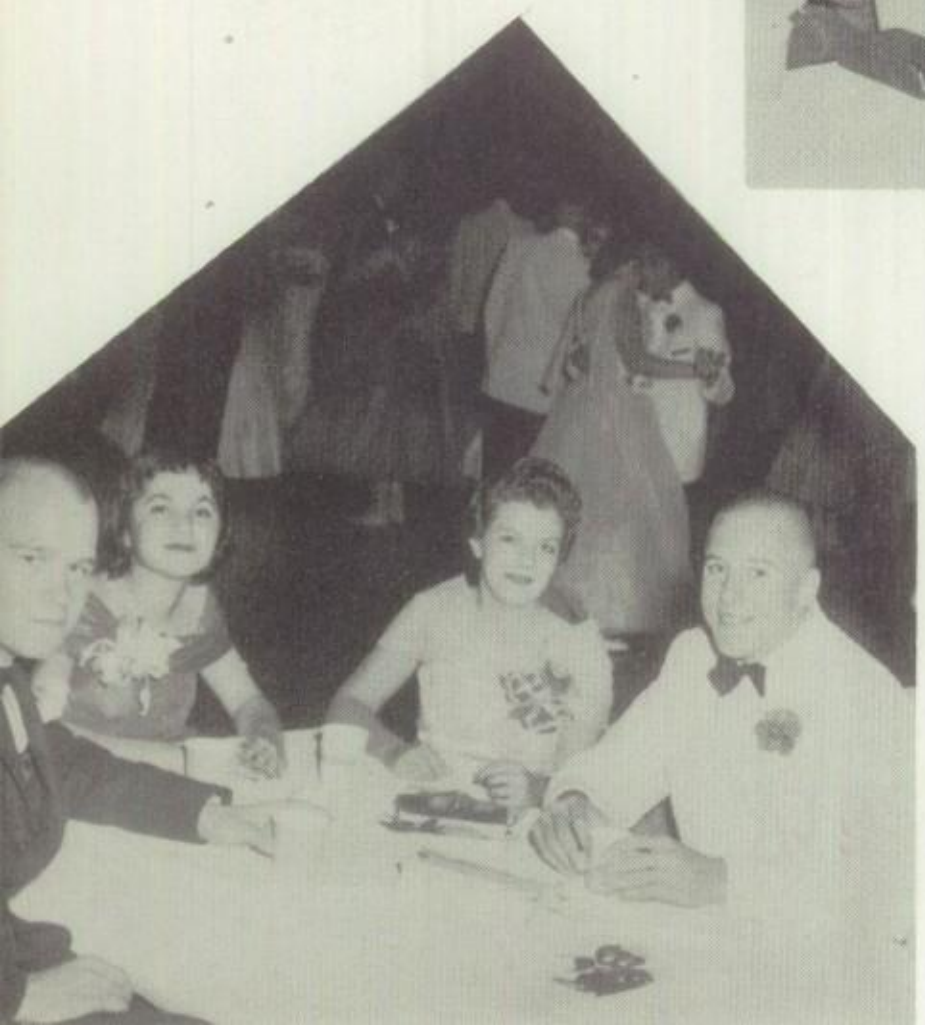
Freshmen . . . REST IN PIECES . . . 4th place

Seems everyone was thirsty that night!

DANCES



It's easy to see the crowd enjoyed the music and conversation at this year's Kerry Dance.



S.M. Yul Brynners, Joe Rice and Pat West also show off their dates.

Is this a dance or is this a dance?

CANDY CANE CHRISTMAS

The dance floor was crowded as the couples took advantage of the music provided by Ray Andrade and the band.

EBB TIDE

The Student Council's formal on January 21 featured the music of the Starlighters and the underwater theme of "Ebbtide."

Sweet music and a pretty girl are all a guy needs, right, Ray?

Here's the long and short of it — Tim Hegg and Mickey Johnson — all smiles on the dance floor.

"Welcoming" each other to their own dance are Senators Murphy, Trujillo, and Mracek.

The pause that refreshes . . .

It must have been funnier than the ones he tells in class!

KERRY DANCE

Johnny Kamrar and Mike Tiffany and their dates strike an interesting pose at the Kerry Dance.

There seems to be a big attraction, but apparently Irene didn't find it.

It seems that everybody "could have danced all night" at the crowded sports dances.

SIGH . . .

Sweetheart Mary Ann Stovall reigned over the Sweetheart Ball, sponsored by the annual staff. Of one candidate from each of the four classes, the sophomore representative took the title.

ELOCUTION

St. Mary's really made a name for itself in speech circles this season. The Knights walked off with a majority of the top honors in Tempe, Tucson, and Los Angeles speech contests. Other local contests added to St. Mary's prestige.

St. Mary's orators, pictured here are, from left to right: 1st row — Jim Gannon, Tony Billings, and Howard Davis. 2nd row — Charlie Bayer, Libby Diaz, Louise Sampson, and Pat Shreve.

ASSEMBLIES

Beginning in early February, the class talent assemblies took firm hold of the attention of S.M. students. Included in the varied programs were pantomimes, singing groups, dances, and novelty acts. Judges Mrs. Mary Allen, Bobbie Johnson, and Bert Fireman based their decisions on originality, class participation, scenery, costumes, and continuity.

"Disc Time — U.S.A." was the theme of the seniors' presentation, which copped third place. A hit parade of songs were demonstrated before a backdrop of musical notes and records.

The juniors' interpretation of "Show Boat" boasted a recreation of the Mississippi steamer. Scenes revolved around auditions for the Dixie amusement, and the production placed second.

Depicted by the sophomores, "Moments to Remember," followed the calendar of holidays and other festive occasions. Earning the grand prize and directed by Father Salvador, the program featured colored film slides as a unique background.

"Famous Books" themed the Freshman Assembly. Talent of the class was portrayed in such acts ranging from "Don Quixote" to "The Lady and the Tramp." A job well done, Freshies.

SENIORS

The best act in four assemblies — "Sailor Boys," perfected by Barbara Defer and Sandy Leahy.

Por Dios! What are S.M. lettermen coming to?

Mary Jo, Gloria, and Pat don't appear to be "Singing the Blues."

"Banana Boat Song" by the talented Senior Sextet in beautiful native costuming.

White Pain Shampoo. What a commercial!

JUNIORS

"Mammie" by Al Jolson and his (her?) chorus.

Here comes the "Showboat!"

Who's auditioning whom, anyway?

Now you has jazz — and did Maggie dance!

Skoobedobedo! Some 1920 music for a '57 audience.

St. Louis woman, a Dixie atmosphere.

SOPHOMORES

The Fourth of July on an Arizona beach?

Sophomore colleens demonstrate the Irish jig.

"Winter Wonderland" in the Valley of the Sun.

These pretty little bunnies added attraction to the winning assembly.

The sophomore wedding introduced "Moments to Remember."

FRESHMEN

Man, they're the greenest!

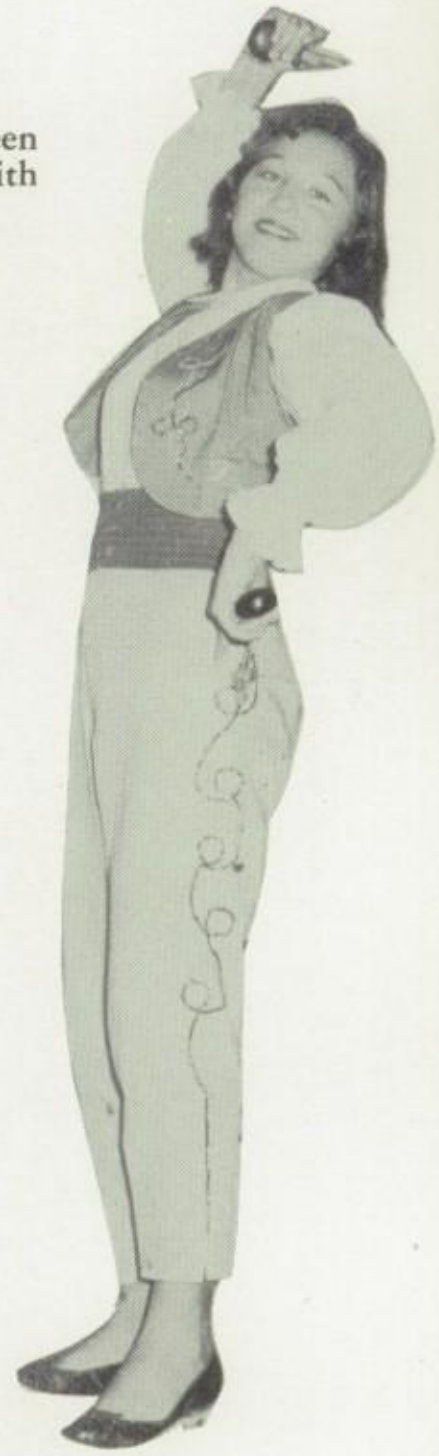
WHAT? Why, that's "Scarecrow Joe!"

"Green Sleeves," and the up-and-coming freshman quartet.

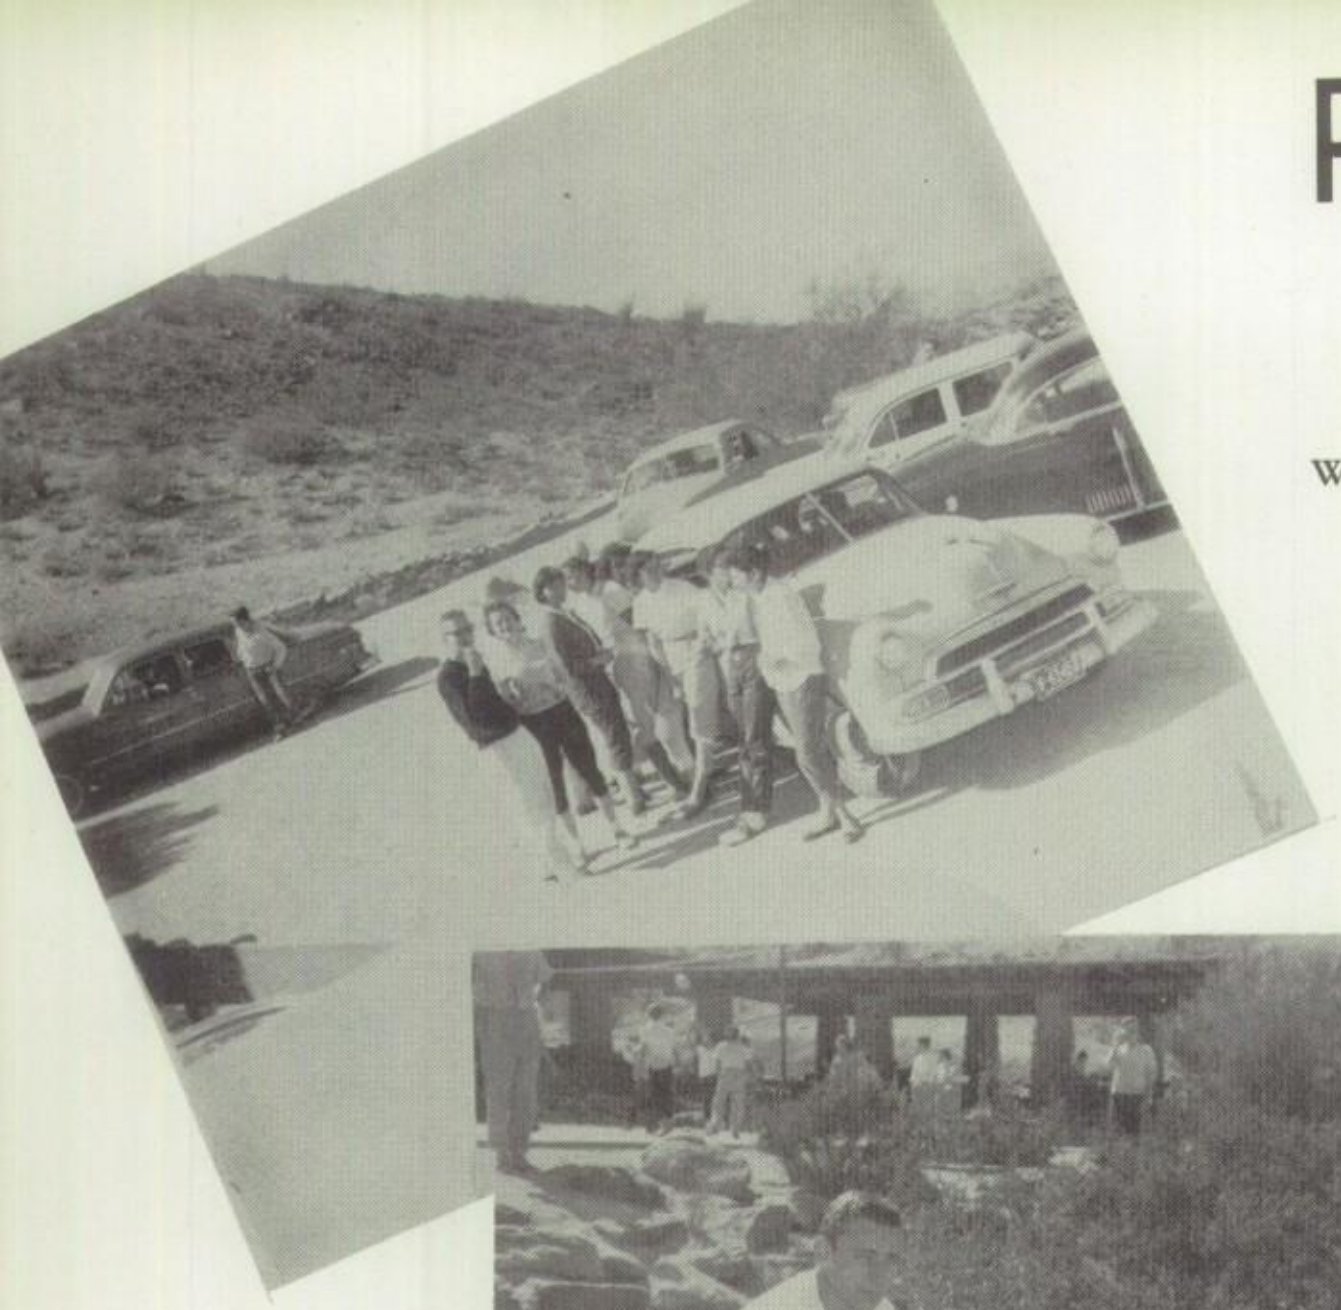
"Eloise," her Nany, and the vocal background really amused the audience.

"The Lady and the Tramp" — another delightful portrayal.

If only Don Quixote could have seen Carman's dance — complete with castenets.

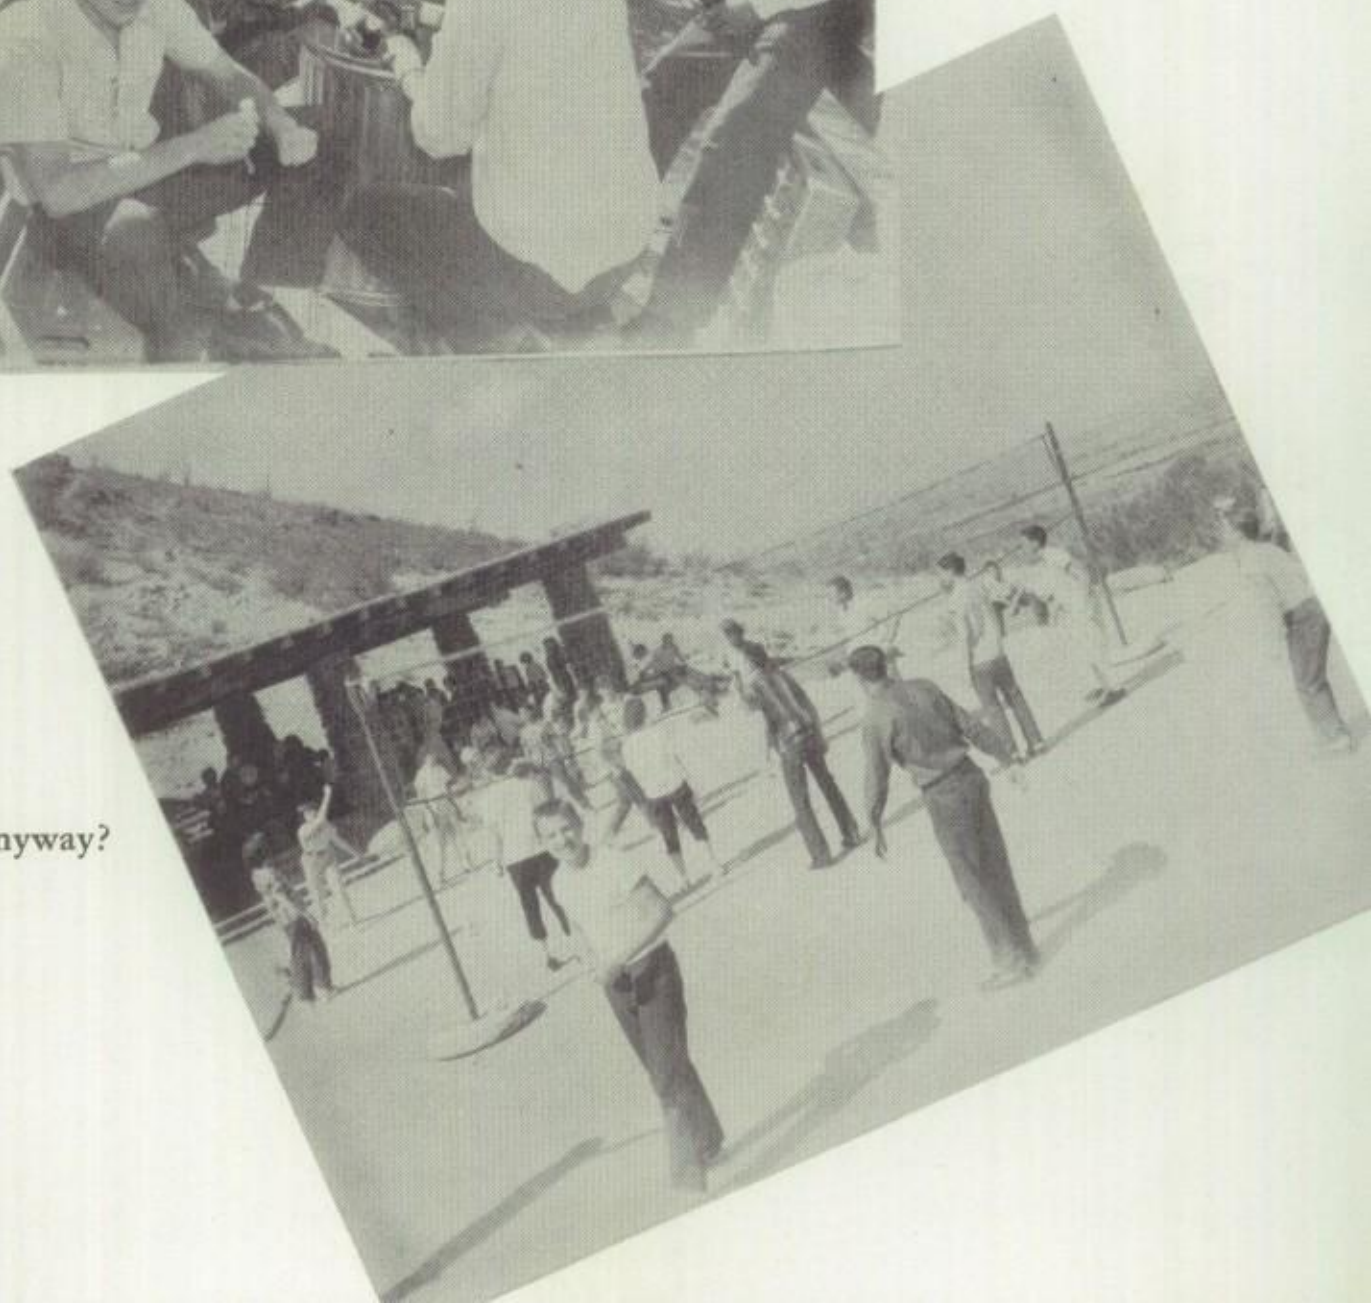


PICNIC



What should we do now?

Selling pop seems to be a terribly tedious job.



What was the ending score, anyway?

Umm, good!!

A relaxing day,
wouldn't you say?

Will our yellow Green Hornet make it all the way back?

St. Mary's received state-wide recognition with its top scorer, Mike Tiffany. Mike was honored as he was picked for the All-State first team backfield.

Big number 26, Howard Powers, proved to be a valuable wheel in St. Mary's football machine. Howard's pass-snatching talent enabled him to receive honorable mention as end on the All-State team.

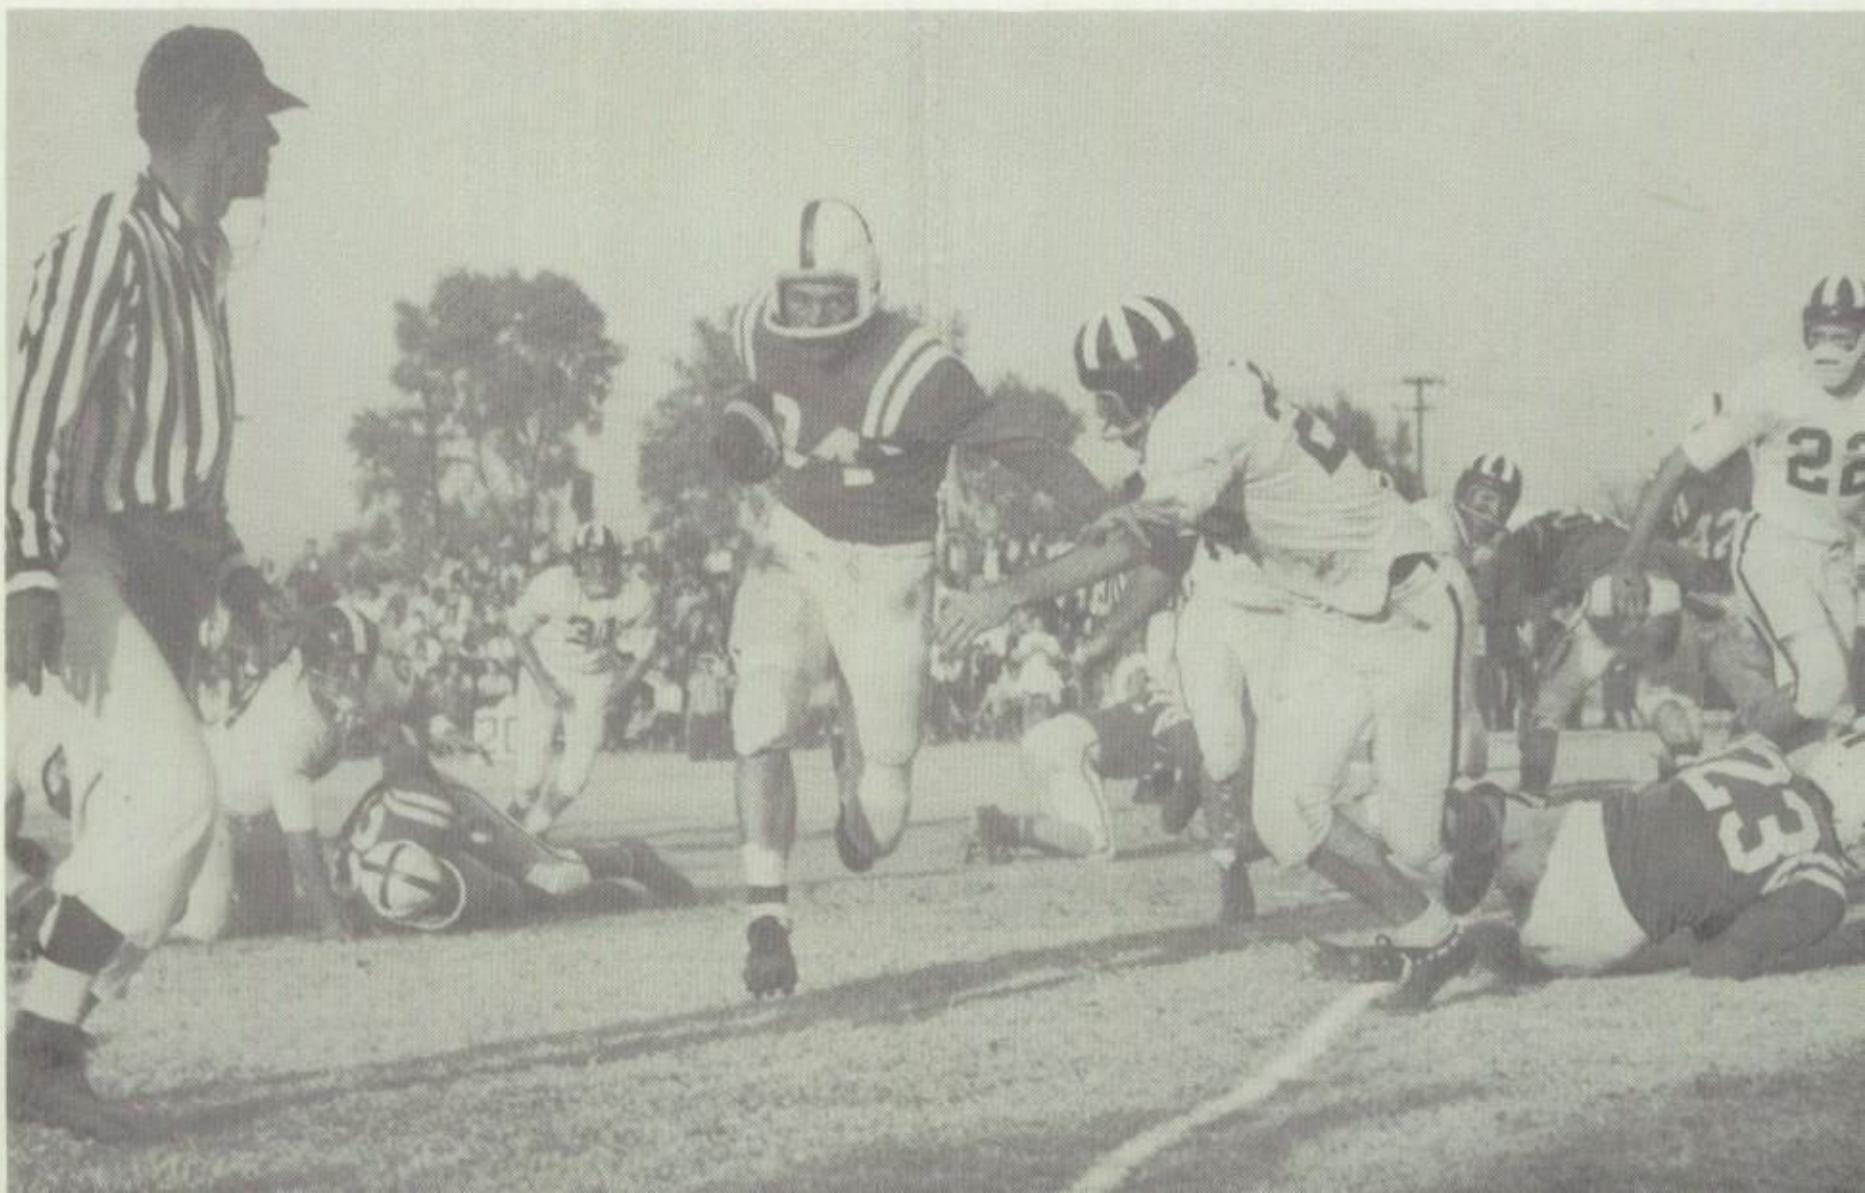
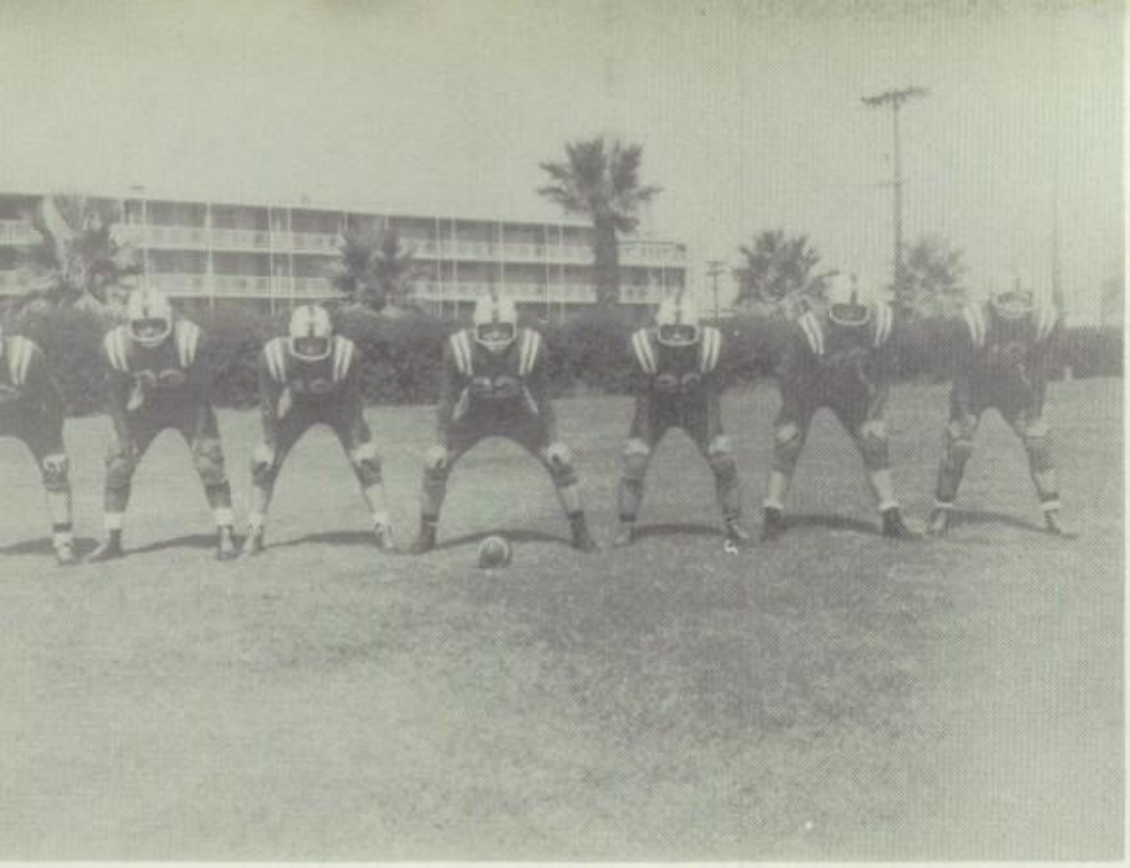
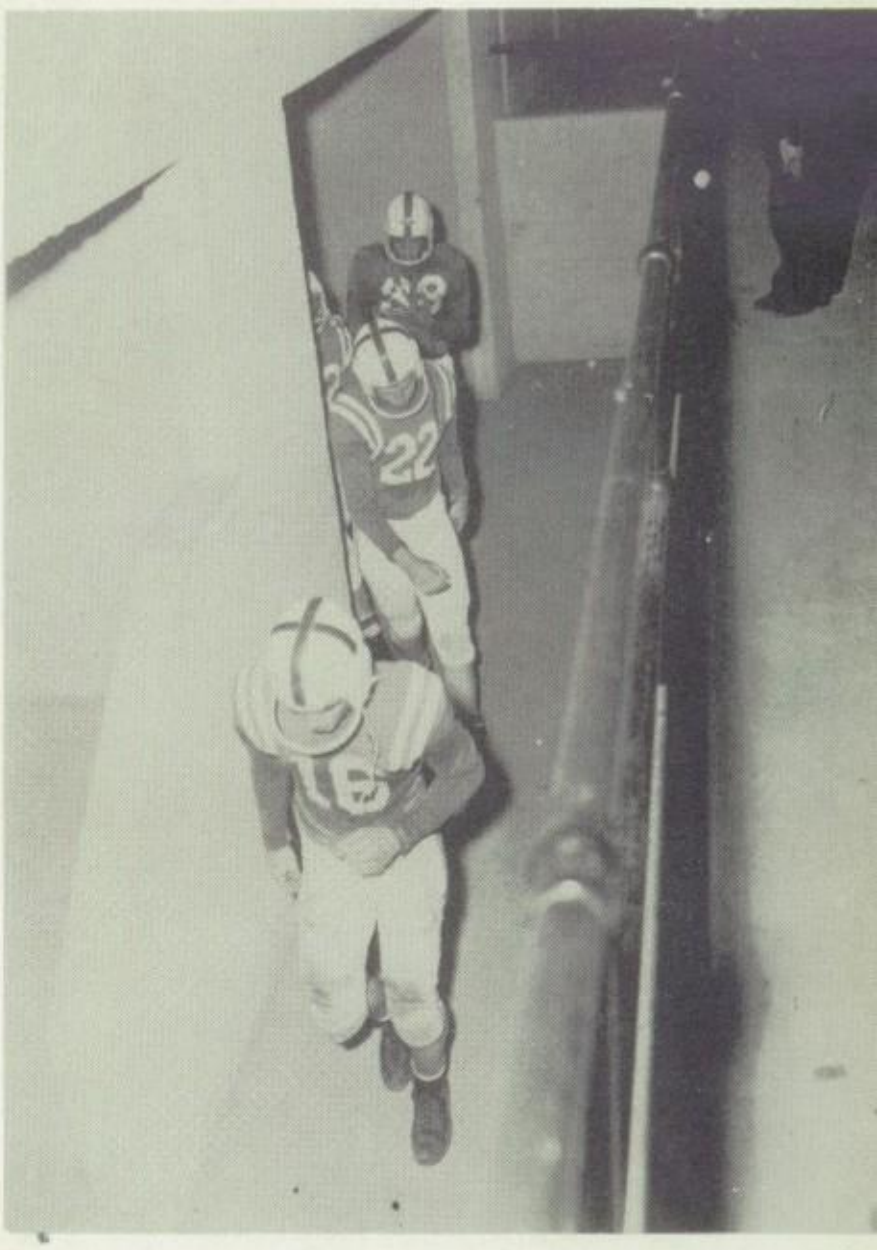
John Mesquita flies high as Howard Bell prepares to take out a lanky Spartan defender. This turned out to be another thrill-packed contest as the Knights downed Camelback 32-31.

Halfback, Mike Tiffany, skirts around right end against West High in the 2nd quarter as the Knights attempt to hit pay dirt against the Thunderbirds.





t. Mary's starting line, from left to right: Howard Powers, Howard ell, Kent Staab, John Kamrar, Jim Mracek, Ken Lindsey, and Jess uellar.



Here we go again? The Knights charge out to face another enemy.

Pat West zeros-in on North High's number 1, Fred Lyddon, as Jim Mracek comes in to help. This was typical of the hard-hitting action in the close Knight-Mustang contest.

St. Mary's Jim Stovall and North's Lloyd Aycock scramble over a loose ball in the first quarter. The Knight's Carbajal, Hall, and Cuellar move in to help. When the final gun sounded, the boys in Green and White came out on the short end of a 19-6 score.

A solemn moment before the game. Here the Knights huddle in the traditional pre-game prayer before taking the field against West High.

All's well that ends well — and St. Mary's football season always ends well with the annual banquet. Here, the boys and dads enjoy the food and fun in St. Mary's cafeteria.

The Knights can outdo anyone on the gridiron or at the table. This year's banquet featured good food and an interesting talk by Dan Devine of Arizona State.

TIM HEGG – 6'4", center; a good rebounder and a consistent scorer, Tim is the tallest member of this year's first team.

JIM STOVALL – 5'8", guard; Jim is the sparkplug of the team, and a scrappy player on defense.

FRANK HIDALGO – 5'9", guard; a great playmaker, Frank has a good outside shot.

JOHN POWERS – 6'2", forward; top scorer on the team, John made second team all-city for the 2nd straight year.

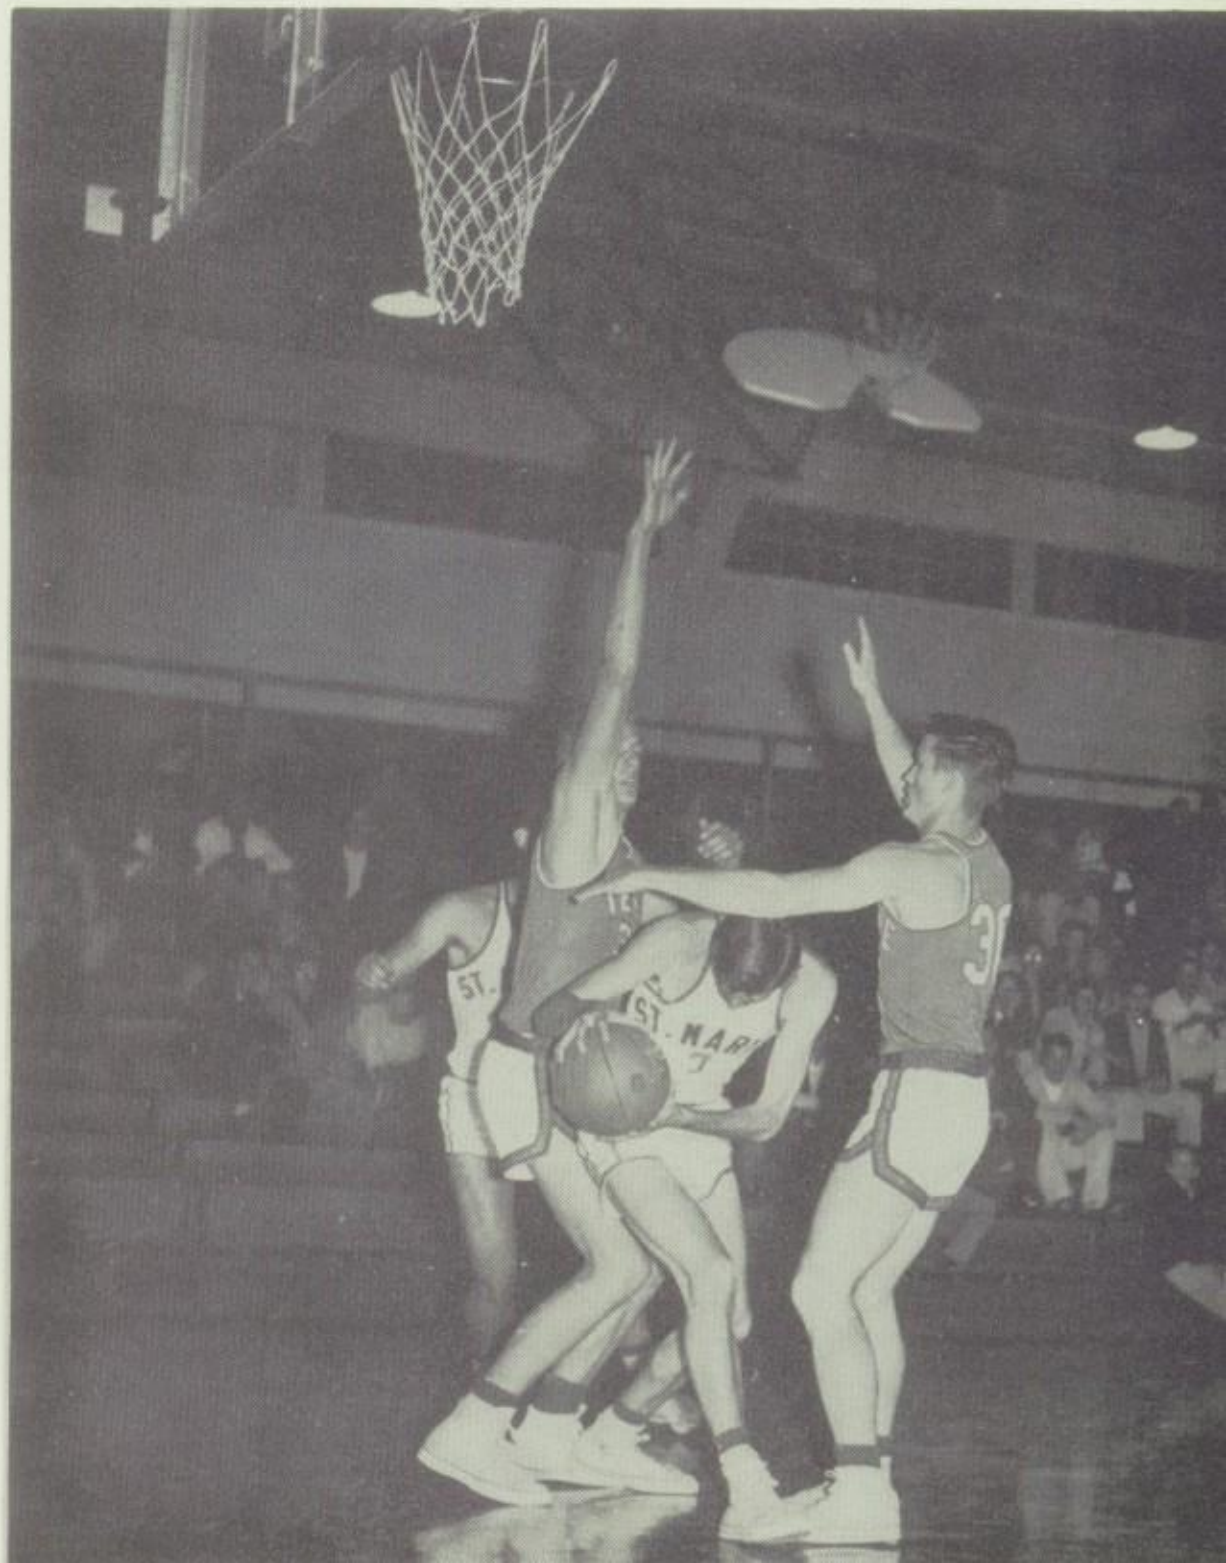
John Powers scrambles after a loose ball but his unknown enemy has the same idea. Forward Gerry McFarland and a pair of wide-eyed defenders look on.

The outstretched arms of Paul Gaiser grope futily for a lost rebound among a close network of defenders. Other Knights in on the play are Henry Peralta and Jim Tucker.

The smiling face of Fr. Michael instilled spirit in the Knights and kept St. Mary's teams rolling in sports. As athletic director, Fr. Mike deserves a big thanks.

Long arms and surprised looks are shown here in this shot from the St. Mary's-Tolleson game. John Powers tries to get through the Wolverines as Paul Gaiser looks back with surprise.



John Powers weaves his way through the Tempe defense to go under the basket for another two points. Tempe found it hard to stop John that night as he swished the net for 30 points!

At the time the El Caballero went to press, the Knights had won ten games and lost only three. The Knights' most impressive win was an 11-0 victory over Phoenix Union. Frank Hidalgo pitched a three-hitter and Jim Tucker hit a grand slam home run. The Knights have five batters hitting over .300. They are Pat West, Henry Medrano, Frank Hidalgo, Dick Woods, and Jim Tucker. The Knights' pitching chores have been handled very successfully by Frank Hidalgo (5 wins, 3 losses) and Mike Voita (5 wins, 0 losses.) Two other important factors have been the timely hitting of Jim Stovall and the hustling play of Willy Gorman.
